

Listen Up to the Agenda Circa 1921

By Anna Von Reitz

I am reprinting these twenty-one truly sickening quotes of Margaret Sanger, founder of Planned Parenthood, courtesy of: <https://tfpstudentaction.org/blog/margaret-sanger-quotes>

The viciousness and ideological bent of Ms. Sanger is grossly apparent throughout, and is echoed throughout the Eugenics Movement to a greater or lesser extent.

Instead of being about any true and compassionate concern for the betterment of humanity, these El-itists banging the gong about population control believe that they are superior and in a position to judge everyone else's "fitness" as parents. They are also grossly racist, and plainly intend to use birth control and abortion as a means to genocide colored people. And they promote the idea that the government should have a role in controlling and deciding who can have a child or not, via a permitting process.

Ms. Sanger's view is the same view as the Nazis.

The Pirbright Institute and its allies have been at this since the 1870's and nobody has called them on it. What they are preaching is so nasty and self-important, that normal people find it difficult to think about what they are saying and doing, but response is necessary and long overdue.

Any activity, corporation, or club that aims to harm, limit, or otherwise control people so as to deny or deprive them of their natural and unalienable rights, including their reproductive rights, needs to be broken up and scattered to the winds.

We need to recognize that these individuals, organizations and corporations, are acting against our Constitutions and undermining the reproductive and privacy rights of millions of people -- whether its the WHO or Planned Parenthood doing it, the results and the issues are the same.

Read Ms. Sanger's actual thoughts and beliefs and motivations for "Planned Parenthood" and try not to throw up:

1. "But for my view, I believe that there should be no more babies."

-- Interview with John Parsons, 1947

2. "The most merciful thing that the large family does to one of its infant members is to kill it."

-- Woman and the New Race, Chapter 5, "The Wickedness of Creating Large Families."
(1920) <http://www.bartleby.com/1013/>

3. "We don't want the word to go out that we want to exterminate the Negro population..."

-- Letter to Dr. Clarence J. Gamble, December 10, 1939, p. 2

4. "I accepted an invitation to talk to the women's branch of the Ku Klux Klan... I was escorted to the platform, was introduced, and began to speak...In the end, through simple illustrations I believed I had accomplished my purpose. A dozen invitations to speak to similar groups were proffered."

-- Margaret Sanger, An Autobiography, published in 1938, p. 366

5. "I think the greatest sin in the world is bringing children into the world, that have disease from their parents, that have no chance in the world to be a human being practically... Delinquents, prisoners, all sorts of things just marked when they're born. That to me is the greatest sin—that people can—can commit."

-- Interview with journalist Mike Wallace, 1957

6. "The most serious evil of our times is that of encouraging the bringing into the world of large families. The most immoral practice of the day is breeding too many children..."

-- Sanger, Margaret. Woman and the New Race (1920). Chapter 5: The Wickedness of Creating Large Families. <http://www.bartleby.com/1013/5...>

7. "Eugenics without birth control seems to us a house builded [sic] upon the sands. It is at the mercy of the rising stream of the unfit."

-- Sanger, Margaret. (1919) Birth Control and Racial Betterment. The Birth Control Review.

8. "As an advocate of birth control, I wish to take advantage of the present opportunity to point out that the unbalance between the birth rate of the 'unfit' and the 'fit,' admittedly the greatest present menace to civilization, can never be rectified by the inauguration of a cradle competition between these two classes."

-- Sanger, Margaret. (1921) The Eugenic Value of Birth Control Propaganda. The Birth Control Review, p. 5. <http://birthcontrolreview.net/...>

9. "The most urgent problem today is how to limit and discourage the over-fertility of the mentally and physically defective."

-- Sanger, Margaret. (1921) The Eugenic Value of Birth Control Propaganda, Birth Control Review, p. 5

<https://www.nyu.edu/projects/s...>

10. "No more children should be born when the parents, though healthy themselves, find that their children are physically or mentally defective."

-- Sanger, Margaret. (1918) When Should A Woman Avoid Having Children? Birth Control Review, Nov. 1918, 6-7, Margaret Sanger Microfilm, S70:807.

<https://www.nyu.edu/projects/s...>

11. "A marriage license shall in itself give husband and wife only the right to a common household and not the right to parenthood."

-- Margaret Sanger, "America Needs a Code for Babies," Article 3, 27 Mar 1934.

<https://www.nyu.edu/projects/s...>

12. "No woman shall have the legal right to bear a child, and no man shall have the right to become a father, without a permit for parenthood."

-- Margaret Sanger, "America Needs a Code for Babies," Article 4, March 27, 1934.

13. "Permits for parenthood shall be issued upon application by city, county, or state authorities to married couples, providing they are financially able to support the expected child, have the qualifications needed for proper rearing of the child, have no transmissible diseases, and, on the woman's part, no medical indication that maternity is likely to result in death or permanent injury to health."

-- Margaret Sanger, "America Needs a Code for Babies," Article 5, March 27, 1934.

14. "No permit for parenthood shall be valid for more than one birth..."

-- Margaret Sanger, "America Needs a Code for Babies," Article 6, March 27, 1934.

15. "Apply a stern and rigid policy of sterilization and segregation to that grade of population whose progeny is tainted, or whose inheritance is such that objectionable traits may be transmitted to offspring."

-- Sanger, Margaret. "My Way to Peace," Jan. 17, 1932. Margaret Sanger Papers, Library of Congress 130:198. <https://www.nyu.edu/projects/s...>

16. "... these two words [birth control] sum up our whole philosophy... It means the release and cultivation of the better elements in our society, and the gradual suppression, elimination and eventual extinction, of defective stocks -- those human weeds which threaten the blooming of the finest flowers of American civilization."

-- Margaret Sanger, "High Lights in the History of Birth Control," Oct 1923.
<https://www.nyu.edu/projects/s...>

17. "Organized charity itself is the symptom of a malignant social disease..."

-- Sanger, Margaret (1922). The Pivot of Civilization.

18. "My own position is that the Catholic doctrine is illogical, not in accord with science, and definitely against social welfare and race improvement."

-- Margaret Sanger, "The Pope's Position on Birth Control," Jan. 27, 1932.
<https://www.nyu.edu/projects/s...>

19. "All of our problems are the result of overbreeding among the working class... Knowledge of birth control is essentially moral. Its general, though prudent, practice must lead to a higher individuality and ultimately to a cleaner race."

-- Margaret Sanger, "Morality and Birth Control," Feb-Mar 1918.
<http://www.nyu.edu/projects/sa...>

20. "Feeble-mindedness perpetuates itself from the ranks of those who are blandly indifferent to their racial responsibilities. And it is largely this type of humanity we are now drawing upon to populate our world for the generations to come. In this orgy of multiplying and replenishing the earth, this type is pari passu multiplying and perpetuating those direst evils in which we must, if civilization is to survive, extirpate by the very roots."

-- Margaret Sanger, The Pivot of Civilization, 1922
<https://www.scribd.com/documen...>

21. "Birth control itself, often denounced as a violation of natural law, is nothing more or less than the facilitation of the process of weeding out the unfit, of preventing the birth of defectives or of those who will become defectives... If we are to make racial progress, this development of womanhood must precede motherhood in every individual woman." --

"Woman and the New Race," 1920
