

International Public Notice -- Anchors Away

By Anna Von Reitz

Many people have come to me full of fear and dread. We are, after all, exposing and coming to terms with a world-spanning commercial corporation mafia that is at least 300 years old, with roots going back much farther than that.

We and our country have been the victims of an absolutely mind-numbing fraud and impersonation scheme that has subjected Americans and most of the rest of the world to peonage and enslavement -- and which has aimed at the utter destruction and denigration of humanity for the benefit and the power-mongering of a few.

It's sickening. It's gut-grabbing. It makes you want to throw up. And most of the people who have been the little cogs in all these wheels have no idea that they are doing anything criminal when they implement their part of the scheme. They don't realize that they are harming and undermining themselves, their kids, and everyone else.

The vast majority of the people creating this evil are on autopilot, making assumptions based on years and years of indoctrination that is purposefully designed to make us compliant and trusting and yes, ignorant. Our job is to make everyone concerned a lot less ignorant and do it quickly.

When a crime occurs crime reports are completed and in Legalese this is called an "Information" and the person making the report is called an Informant.

Today, I am acting as an Informant to "fully inform" every attorney you know, every attorney harassing or prosecuting you, every attorney sitting at their desk, schmoozing at a club, yes, every attorney working for you -- because like it or not, though they can be nice guys individually, as a profession they've been trained to be mindless attack dogs -- attack dogs that are committing heinous and inexcusable crimes.

I am attaching six (8) pages of information in the criminal sense that describe the Great Fraud as the Americans have experienced it, and as virtually all the other former British, Commonwealth, Western European, and Japanese victims have experienced it. It gives you a key to identify which legal fiction is which, and crucially, connects the dots connecting this Great Fraud to the asset theft it perpetuates and the money and credit assets it purloins.

I don't go into the same cookie-cutter process as it applies to yen and Deutsch Marks and British Pounds Sterling, but the process, like the end result, is the same.

Corporations steal everything from the living people and subject us to a form of Corporate Feudalism based on defrauding and denigrating living men for their profit, enforcing peonage and enslavement and illegal asset confiscation using the courts and the members of the BAR Associations and American Medical Association (plug in your country's version of that) to do it.

These men, who are largely unaware of what they are doing and that they are in fact promoting crime, need to be told and held accountable so that they stop going along to get along, stop acting as licensed "running dogs" and stop mindlessly obeying their corporate masters.

Put these six (8) pages into their hands. Put them into the hands of justices and judges and accountants and bankers; give them to the priests and pastors and politicians. Give them to the CEOs of corporations. Give them to the Medical Doctors.

Notice to Agents is Notice to Principals; Notice to Principals is Notice to Agents.
