

Answer to "Satan" About Mr. Lincoln and the Results

By Anna Von Reitz

Lincoln, being misrepresented as The President of The United States while acting as President of the United States, was the lie and so are you, The Lie, personified, by your own admission. You have called yourself Satan and so it is.

You deal consistently in half-truths, from Eden to now.

It's true that the Southern States-of-States didn't engender the illegal Mercenary Conflict by walking out on the last meeting of the Confederation and leaving the original Confederation without a quorum. That was no act of war, but a business decision and, in view of the deceitfulness of Lincoln and his cohorts, a moral decision as well.

It's true that Lincoln, acting as "the President" of "the" United States of America, Incorporated, issued an illegal "declaration" and ordered his Mercenaries to attack Fort Sumter.

But then, virtually everything Lincoln did, from his election as the "president" of a privately owned foreign British Territorial corporation calling itself, "the United States of America, Incorporated", to his deceitful declaration of "war", to his "emancipation proclamation" emancipating Southern slave owners and his issuance of General Order 100 --- was all done in fraud and deceit and Gross Breach of Trust.

Everyone then and everyone now has cause to know that Mr. Lincoln had no power to declare war, and yet, he issued his personal declaration which appeared to do so. And trusting folk, thinking that he was their President, obeyed him.

This demonstrates the value of knowing your Constitution and holding anyone appearing to be a public official accountable.

But his deceptions then do not excuse yours now.

The Confederation, which was an instrumentality of the sovereign States -- North and South -- operating in Maritime Jurisdiction as the States of America under The Articles of Confederation implemented March 1, 1781, owned and operated the Federal Republic instituted as the American Federal Subcontractor in receipt of the enumerated Delegated Powers under The Constitution for the united States of America, as a further instrumentality, and both were destroyed by the rift that started in 1860. Their "perpetual Union" was broken and has never been reconstructed by the States of the Union.

Those are the facts and no matter how you try to twist the Truth, they remain.

When Jefferson Davis and his compatriots formed the new organization known as The Confederate States of America they combined the assets of the Southern State-of-State organizations doing business as The State of Georgia, The State of Virginia, etc., they created their own new "Confederation" as is made obvious from the name change: it was no longer our original Confederation "the States of America" which included both North and South, it was "The Confederate States of America" to which only Southern members belonged. The North, meantime, formed its own "Union Confederation" and then, in common parlance, started calling itself "the Union" to promote confusing it with our actual Union of States.

Jefferson Davis was fully aware of all this and often commented in his books and public speeches and appearances after the armed hostilities ended that there would be a reckoning. So if you are trying to promote yourself as a friend of Jefferson Davis and the Southern Cause you should be pleased that I am paying the Liars out --- but you're not. Instead, you are a Liar trying to chisel an advantage out of the misery of our Forefathers.

The creation of the original Confederation in 1781 self-evidently did not replace either the United States (original Union formed in 1776, and operated as "the United States" from 1776 to 1851, when the name changed to The United States) or The United State of America, our unincorporated Federation of States. Both the United States (The United States after 1851) and The United States of America were in full operation before, during, and after the so-called Civil War.

Anyone with a brain should know that sovereign entities and direct Agents of sovereign entities CANNOT be incorporated by foreign governments and ARE NOT eligible for bankruptcy protections, and yet, you are trying to convince your Followers otherwise, trying to confuse them and claim that the Federation is or was a "Federal Subcontractor", which it never has been and could not be, because the Federation and its member States are the Principals on the paying end of the Federal Constitutions.

We're the Employers. not the Employees.
