

International Public Notice: Not as We Do, But as We Say....

By Anna Von Reitz

For months the Pikers among us have been distracting attention with Central Bank Digital Currencies (CBDCs) and every kind of digital coin and token from Bitcoin to so-called gold-backed Stability Coins.

Yet, all the while, the banks themselves have been stocking up on gold, gold, and more gold. People have been waiting 6-8 weeks when they have called in their gold receipts and deposits, instead of 1-2 days, and as the commentator notes --- this is enough of a delay on delivery to be considered a default:

So why is all the gold from the Bank of England coming here?

To cover their debts to us and return our gold which they were using as securitized collateral backing their banks --- which is the same story on a worldwide basis. This is what the buzz is talking about when they start looking weak-kneed and saying however many European banks are busted.

Surprise, surprise, they have been busted right along with the American banks since the 1930's. They've all been bankrupt and in receivership this entire time, being run as "essential government services" under a "state of emergency" that was declared by Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

The only way that these banks have been able to operate has been by borrowing private assets as collateral, which they then "monetized" at seven to ten times the asset's actual value, and then used this purloined credit to loan out at interest.

Their billboards advertising "house loans" were not suggesting that they would give you a loan to buy or build a house. They were suggesting instead that you loan them your house so that they could use it as an asset to borrow against for a set period of time.

And while Bank of England or Bank of America surreptitiously borrowed all your homes and suckered you into paying a mortgage on top of it, the Federal Reserve laid a backdoor claim on your labor, and issued blood money -- debt notes based on labor -- that they owned, but which were all paid for by you, again and again, every time you exchanged one of their Federal Reserve Notes for actual goods and services.

Slick work. All fraudulent. All venal in the extreme. And they didn't disclose any of this. And they didn't share the proceeds with you.

So at the end of the day, it's all Odious Debt --- debt amassed by means of fraud, of which the victim is unaware, and from which they did not profit.

This is why all the debts have to be written off. It's not just a Golden Jubilee dictated in the Book of Leviticus. It's actual banking law that demands this.

Pay attention, sweethearts, because while these same cretins have been propagandizing all digital currencies, they've been buying gold and silver and hunting for precious metals like coon dogs in October.

They know what most modern investors do not --- that when there is a digital currency system, there is also a kill switch to turn it all off. Gold and silver on the other hand, remain in hand.

The move is on by the Central Banks, and especially, the Bank for International Settlements, to make it non-obligatory for them to honor depositor's precious metals receipts in actual precious metals.

They are saying that if you give them ten tons of pure gold, they won't be required to return ten tons of pure gold on demand; instead, they say, your safekeeping receipt will be all you need to transact business "as if" you were paying with ten tons of pure gold, but, not really.

After all the other sleights of hand you've seen, is this a deal for you?

Let's see..... they get ten tons of gold that they never have to actually repay you, and you get paper receipts that they claim are as good as gold in exchange.

It's the same old story, something for nothing.

And everything for the bank, nothing for you.

It's time to wake up, everyone, everywhere. We have been living under the influence of a psychotic group of criminals infesting our world like a disease. This blackmail cult has promoted every kind of perversion and corrupted all our institutions.

They have been destroying your quality of life, twisting the meaning of words, misrepresenting us, misleading us, and most of all, defrauding and cheating us of our time, our money, our land, our freedom and everything else of value.
