

The Ax Needs to Fall

By Anna Von Reitz

Hundreds of thousands of people are implicated after being behaviorally conditioned to go along with the pandemic genocide. Like B.F. Skinner's dogs trained to salivate in response to a dinner bell, these people were conditioned to respond to a biological threat by making specific assumptions and taking specific actions, on autopilot.

Old-fashioned people like Granna call this "brainwashing". It might be more exact to call it "brain-wiping" because even well-educated people like doctors and nurses forget their own training, and accept obvious lies under its influence.

Later students of Skinner's discovered that behavioral conditioning is a form of induced self-hypnosis.

College graduates with two years of biological sciences should know that a cloth mask to a virus is the equivalent of a chicken wire fence to a mosquito.

Yet, hundreds of thousands of medical professionals -- who objectively know this and knew for sure that masks were ineffectual -- were marching around like Nazis wearing masks and forcing little kids to wear masks.

Read that: even though they clearly knew that masks were useless or worse, were breeding grounds for staph and pneumonia bacteria, these medical professionals were wearing masks and shaming the public into wearing masks, too.

Most of us are aware that Gates and Company staged Event 2.0 and promoted it as an emergency preparedness drill just before the pandemic unfolded, but in reality, it was a dress rehearsal for a great and premeditated crime that was decades in the making.

There had been many other reiterations of this Event 2.0 "training" that preceded the pandemic. The Perpetrators had been using this training to mentally condition vast numbers of people to act with blind cooperation --- doctors, nurses, hospital administrators, police, media, celebrities, and local government officials, all acting like zombies and responding on cue.

They had also been using these "emergency training" forums to undermine principals of our Public Law and Government -- for example, telling doctors and hospital administrators that they needn't be concerned about Informed Consent. This disinformation had to be spread under color of law (fake authority) before these people could be induced to ignore such basic safeguards and liabilities.

Now comes RFK, Jr., as head of the Department of Health and Human Services:

This was never about health. It was about usurpation of power, and means to obtain coercive power; it was about profit to be made from death and disability and disease; it was about claiming an ownership interest in living flesh; it was about many things, but never about health.

We have hundreds of thousands of people who were brainwashed using advanced behavioral conditioning to induce self-hypnosis, people who are still blindly parroting what they were taught in these disaster preparedness drills, still firmly believing that they did the right thing, because the men who ran these preparatory brain-washing events were authorities --- like Dr. Fauci.

They assumed, wrongly as it turns out, that a senior bureaucrat had to be honest and knowledgeable.

Yet, we knew that Fauci was a rat, forty years ago, during the AZT Scandal, which he fomented as the lead researcher into AIDS at NIH and the chief proponent of the deadly experimental AIDS drug, AZT, that he had a financial interest in.

And here we have Fauci again, forty years later, still at the NIH, promoting an mRNA therapy misrepresented as a "vaccine" -- that he also has a financial interest in.

Those who don't remember history are condemned to relive it.

The snippet of genetically engineered mRNA that was injected into over a billion people as a vaccine causes the cell to do a number of terrible things.

It switches off the cancer suppressor gene, thus promoting cancer development. It provides genetic codes to produce an alien protein that is a neurotoxin similar to snake venom, which poisons the victim, one cell at a time. As the body's immune system responds to this foreign protein, it is slowly and systemically worn down, resulting in an induced immune system failure similar to AIDS --- now fully identified and dubbed "VAIDS".

Is it any mistake that Dr. Fauci, lead researcher into AIDS, would be the source of VAIDS? Is it any surprise that a man who forsook solid science in pursuit of financial gain in the 1980's would do it again forty years later?

The big surprise is that Fauci continued to wheel and deal and act with such reckless avarice with no apparent damage to his reputation or academic career. He continued his long float to the top of the punch bowl unimpeded.

And even now....

The greatest scandals are being passed over by DOGE. The greatest scandals surpass, even, the huge amounts of waste, fraud, and abuse that the Department of Government Efficiency is uncovering.

These greatest scandals involve the privatization of government functions by unregulated private agencies.

The NIH is a subcontractor of a government subcontractor; neither one of these are actually part of our government.

The FBI is a subcontractor of a government subcontractor; neither one of these are actually part of our government.

The CDC is a subcontractor of a government subcontractor; neither one of these are actually part of our government.

The CIA is a subcontractor of a government subcontractor; neither one of these are actually part of our government.

FEMA, BATF, IRS, and all the rest of the alphabet soup agencies and many "departments" are subcontractors of subcontractors.

While it doesn't surprise us, there are still billions of people who think that their public government is public, when in fact everything is being run by private, for-profit corporations, and public services are being provided by private, for-profit foreign corporations.

Is it a surprise that unsupervised for-profit corporations in the business of providing government services have wasted, stolen, and abused public funding?

No, it isn't surprising. Disappointing, yes, but not surprising.

What is shocking is that the 37 million parent corporations in the world all boil down to 147 umbrella corporations that are owned by ten big banks, that are controlled by ten big funds (think pension funds and investment funds) that are controlled by 150 men that are all blood-relatives.

<https://rumble.com/v6nzawx-dr.-lee-merritt-and-dr.-bryan-ardis-500-trillion-dollars-shocking-never-bef.html>

These are the men that have literally controlled the world. They have schemed to kill us, have us do their dirty work in this regard, and pay them for the privilege of murdering each other.

The ax has to fall. On them. And their corporations.

This is the actual scandal.

And while Musk chases $2 Trillion by July 4th, we all need to be thinking in terms of hundreds of trillions embezzled and stolen from humanity, and especially from this country, The United States, by this same inbred psychopathic cartel.
