

How To Tell Bears From Buckwheat

By Anna Von Reitz

All sovereign entities, all actual States, are unincorporated.

Anything incorporated is not sovereign and not an actual State, regardless of what they call themselves. Period.

This is how you can cut through all the confusion and make sure you are not wasting your time or being co-opted by some commercial corporation's Dirty Tricks Department.

All American States are operated exclusively by American State Citizens and American State Nationals.

If any "US Citizen" tells you they are operating a "State" you may be sure that they are referring euphemistically to an incorporated "State of State" and that it is a foreign interloper.
