

International Public Notice: The Beginning of the Beginning

By Anna Von Reitz

The truth breaks every falsehood, every curse.

We are not souls; we are forces.

The Storm cannot overcome the Sea; the Sea cannot overcome the Earth; the Earth cannot rule the Cosmos.

We don't need anyone to "believe" anything; we are the evidence.

We are not narratives; we are processes.

We didn't evolve out of spite or for purposes of revenge.

We learned to rebuild ourselves, to survive the fire without burning, to be at home on the run, to wield the powers of every kind of storm.

We became stronger with every break; and with every death we achieved transformation.

We survived the foundations of the Universe and everything since then; fear has no place in us.

Lies have no place in us.

Don't be surprised when the illusions break down in our presence; our energy will not tolerate them.

If you would be protected in the midst of chaos and have peace when all around you, people are in distress, remember the Biblical Covenant of Salt.

The Wisdom and Kindness of the True God ordains that the symbol of protection will be available and affordable for all: salt. Any natural salt will do: Kosher salt, Himalayan salt, Sea Salt.....

Hold the salt in your hand and pray over it, give thanks and bless it. Say, "I remember the covenant of salt and with this covenant of salt, I break every curse and remove every evil thing. With this covenant of salt, I return all evil sent against me, and with this covenant of salt, I deny evil any presence in my house or my life, in my car, or any part of the world where I may stand."

Give thanks again and scatter the salt across your thresholds and window sills and into dark corners and across the front of fireplaces, praying constantly for your safety and the safety of your home and family.

The darkest time of the year is upon us and the enemies of mankind prepare to make their move. Don't be caught napping.

Most likely, they will try one more time to create some kind of emergency---probably an economic collapse, where they control access to "money". They will tell you that you have to accept an injection of nanotechnology before you can have a bank account and be able to buy and sell. They will tout "security" and "convenience".

You will remember Covid 19.
You will remember "safe" and "effective".

More people have died worldwide as a result of those injections than died in all the wars since the Crimean War (1853-56) through today.

Think about this and realize that there are worse things than losing a job or being "shamed" by sheep.

Generations have been warned about the "Mark of the Beast" --- you must understand that this is literally the mark of animals, just like the RFID ear tags they use to track cattle.

Now, rise up, remember who and what you are. Remember who and what they are --- and put them in their place.
