

The Big Con

By Anna Von Reitz

For most people, contemplation of how our American Government has been commandeered by foreign con artists-- British and Papal Agents-- will be hard enough to deal with.

However, beyond this deplorable breach of trust and criminality is a far more common, pervasive, and universal con scheme --The Big Con -- that underlies the world as we know it.

I will call it "The Pillar to Post Scheme". It is very simple ---and it is the necessary condition needed to "divide and conquer"-- as in divide and conquer all of us.

Basically, the Fraud Artists deliberately set up two sides to everything and use this mechanism to --as my Mother used to say, "Play both ends against the middle".

Here is a stellar example of it:

We now know that in the Dark Ages, the Roman Catholic Church paid Mohammed to popularize the Quran throughout the Middle East, apparently in order to create a "Pillar to Post" situation for itself-- that is, to give itself something to fight against and an excuse to confiscate property from the Moors and the Jews.

This creation of religious controversy was the "necessary condition" for The Crusades and all the money, power, and property assets that the Church acquired as a result.

The whole enmity between Islam and Christianity was ginned up with malice aforethought-- created, and not by accident.

We were all used by the "Belief Makers"--- for their gain and our loss.

The Crusades depopulated Europe leaving the Church as beneficiary of most of the resulting largess.

We have all been "played" throughout history in exactly the same manner.

The Perps create two sides and we stupidly line up and choose one side or the other, as if all our choices suddenly dwindled down to that.

Statutory or Common Law?

Allopathic or Naturopathic Medicine?

New England Patriots or Dallas Cowboys?

Republican or Democrat?

Catholic or Protestant?

It's all the same game-- Pillar to Post.

One of the most obvious and vicious examples occurred during the British Protectorate in the Middle East.

They drew some lines on a map and labeled it "Palestine". Everyone inside the border of Palestine was thus labeled a "Palestinian" and redefined as such.

Where, the day before, a peaceful polyglot culture of mostly Arabic and Jordanian people co-existed with a large contingent of European Christians and Jews--- we now had all of them arbitrarily labeled as "Palestinians". Side One was created.

Then all the Perps had to do was create another "side" for the newly created Palestinians to fight against. This was accomplished by importing large numbers of Jews.

Pillar to Post. A recipe for endless war for all of us and endless profits for arms dealers and "defense" manufacturers--- also endless excuses for foreign governments to meddle in the region.

The Vermin are trying to do the same thing throughout the world.

The Masters of the Big Con are busy setting up multiple two-sided hate complexes-- Muslims against Christians, Immigrants against Americans, Immigrants against French, immigrants against Germans, Jews against Everybody, Blacks against Whites and so on.

They are desperately promoting "sides" to everything, and if they have their way, we will soon be fighting each other over which brand of toothpaste we use.

Crest or Colgate?

The important point here is that we are all being played--- conned, set up, used by these Vermin, who are sitting back and profiting themselves from our misery, and never even being identified as the Cause of it all.

Look at what the Church gained from the Crusades? Most of Europe was de-populated, with the Church being the single largest beneficiary of the wealth and assets left behind.

The Church also gained the power of taxation -- a power formerly held only by secular governments.

Remember that the Income Tax began as "Peter's Pence" --a tax imposed by the Church on Parishioner's income for the prior year, collected by the Inquisition and due April 15 of each year -- to support the cost of The Crusades.

And what is the current Income Tax?

Technically, and top IRS officials will tell you this to your face- it's a gift and estate tax.

They are taxing you for the privilege of gifting your estate to them, and you are presumed to be doing this voluntarily as a religious subscription to FDR's "Holy cause".

If the Bushwah got a quarter of an inch deeper, we'd all drown.

And what is this "Holy cause"?

War, eternal, perpetual, horrific, endless war to please Lucifer, the "god" who "loves the smell of burning flesh".

You and millions of others are being defrauded every year out of large portions of your earnings to finance your own destruction and the destruction of other innocent people around the world.

Technically, it is being done by a web-like interlocking trust directorate linking 147 key corporations worldwide and via commodity rigging of the world currency markets by the euphemistically named "Exchange Stabilization Fund" --- but in truth and in fact, in a greater sense, it is only possible because we have been fooled into choosing sides and falling for all this malarkey.

I have one "side"-- the side of life and love and sharing and justice and passion and pleasure and abundance and freedom and peace.

These are the fruits of waking up and putting a stop to their Pillar to Post schemes and withdrawing all support from the organizations that promote these evils.

Are you ready?

The next elections held in this country need to be Public Elections for Public Offices---not Make Believe private corporate elections for political lobbyists.

Declare your political status on the public record and join your State Jural Assembly.

Wake everyone up and spread the word.

Be not like dumb driven cattle.

It's easy.

Stop choosing sides.
