

Our Answer to "Booster Season"

By Anna Von Reitz

Many parents are facing the reality of schools demanding more and more and more "booster" shots. It wasn't bad enough to damage their child's immune system and irrevocably mess with their genome, now the fiends are demanding more and more "boosters" to complete the genocide, maiming, and long term damage program they have institutionalized as Agenda 2030.

They've only got seven years to kill and maim billions of people. So step right up and get going, kids. Your lives are on the line and so are the lives of your children and grandchildren.

We already know for sure that these "vaccines" don't prevent any disease, don't prevent transmission of any disease, and basically have no known benefit --- and, we also know that they have bad effects on the health of recipients.
