

International Public Notice: The Brits "At It" Again

By Anna Von Reitz

Once more, the Brits have been at the bottom of the dogpile in both the Mideast and Ukraine; British air resources have flown the majority of air reconnaissance missions in Gaza and Lebanon, British-made long-range missiles have been fired into Russia with the knowledge and permission of the Starmer Regime.

Here is a brief recount of the current situation caused by Britain and its forever-meddling and war-mongering government in the Ukraine:

What, we may ask, will Britain do about it, if Russia decides to return the favor and lob 2,000 pound long-range missiles into the heart of Exeter, Somerset, Liverpool, London, and Northumberland?

There seems to be a total lack of cognitive ability on the part of what passes for the British Government(s). They think that it's okay for them to surreptitiously lob bombs at other countries and other innocent civilian populations, and they should never have to be accountable for their own actions.

No, it's always the same story, the same narrative -- the brilliant and brave Brits and their Allies being viciously and treacherously attacked without any provocation. But, in fact, there is always provocation. Lots of it. And they are at the bottom of every dogpile leading up to every major war. Here they are, plying their trade again.

The world owes what is left of its integrity and sanity to the forbearance of Vladimir Putin --- like those apples or not. It's apparent that NATO has been trying everything in its power to gin up a war-for-profit somewhere.

They've lit fires in Ukraine and the Mideast and now, they are trying to set up an attack inside The United States as well.

The objects in Ukraine (new base for criminal black ops activities, since their China Plan failed) and the Middle East (oil grabbing and a new alternative to the Suez Canal) are self-explanatory. The situation in The United States is just slightly more veiled.

The Roman Cartel is pushing their Regional Government scheme, which requires the implementation of the North American Union Treaty signed by G.W. Bush. Under this plan, the Canadian corporation would gain control of the Great Lakes, including parts of what are now Michigan and New York.

It's important to realize that neither G.W. nor any other British Territorial "President" has any standing to sign any actual land jurisdiction treaty, and that they are misrepresenting the whole prospect of a "business union" as a geographic union.

Nonetheless, their phony so-called treaty would allow them to do certain things that they are desiring at this moment, mostly because they are in a desperate search for gold and silver resources, now that the banks have been forced to stop extending our credit to them.

Recent discoveries in Arizona's Grand Canyon related to an ancient and unknown civilization, replete with a literal mountain of gold artifacts, has inspired a joint effort by Blackrock, certain Mexican drug cartels, and rogue elements of the U.S. Military to formulate an armed theft of the gold horde and its transport to Mexico, before anyone here is sufficiently aware of it to raise objections to it being smelted down to bullion--- and laundered through the World Bank system by the usual culprits.

So we have a pre-planned attack coming in Arizona, aiming to steal and then destroy ancient artifacts.

At the same time, and part of the "movement to implement" the North American Union Treaty, a Canadian invasion is being planned, with the Canadian Government mounting an armed takeover of naval stations around the Great Lakes and --- not coincidentally, theft of another gold hoard that belongs to the American people.

This second gold deposit was retrieved from the Vatican during Trump's first term in office and jealously guarded by the Military ever since; this hoard represents the gold assets in back of American Birth Certificate Bonds put up by the Municipal Government.

They want to steal that, too, under cover of implementing a phony "treaty" signed by the "President" of a foreign corporation.

Right.

If successful in their aims, this two-ended attack, one in Arizona, one in the Great Lakes, would serve as an excuse to establish a military occupation zone (probably to be occupied by UN Mercenaries) cutting our country in half, and preventing us from ever acting as a unified whole again.

All this scheming has its roots in the British Territorial Government and except for traitors, has nothing to do with America or Americans.

Once again, as ever, the current state of world affairs has been created and is dominated by British greed, British deceit, British lust for power, British violence, British elitism, British meddling in the affairs of other people, British theft of resources belonging to others, and British colonialism disguised as a form of Corporate Feudalism.

Even those driving forces that appear to be rooted in US, Inc. and USA, Inc. policies are forced upon us by the Brits usurping upon our Government under color of law and False Pretenses.

We had no idea when we began this journey of the depths of wrong-doing that the British Government(s) are guilty of, but it is painfully evident now that the British Government entities have been the lynch pins connecting, promoting -- and benefiting from -- three centuries of war-for-profit, false claims in commerce, bank fraud, human trafficking, personage crimes, bankruptcy fraud, insurance fraud, securitization fraud, counterfeiting, and other activities that are criminal in nature.

When called on the carpet for this, the British answer is always the same. They snigger. They think that their behavior is smart, even cute, and that they will not suffer justice for it.

They are in the same position as a man who plants cabbages every year and each year expects a different harvest; unfortunately, their insanity has dire results for the rest of us, and the time has come for everyone in Britain who values their home and their life to wake up.

It's no longer a question if reform of the British Government is necessary or not. It's only a question of how long and at what cost this must be achieved.

By "reform" we do not mean some reshuffling of the royal faces; we mean systemic reform of the attitudes, purpose, and operations of government in Britain, such that the people of the British Isles are no longer being enslaved and defrauded by their own government --- and neither is anyone else.
