

For Those Who Can't Believe It

By Anna Von Reitz

For the last two decades thousands of mini-earthquakes have occurred all around the Pacific Rim, the Schumann Resonance of the Earth has increased to unprecedented frequencies, under sea volcanoes that have been dormant for untold thousands of years have opened up along both the Mid-Atlantic and Pacific Ridges, a miles long fissure has opened up in the Rift Valley of Africa, and Northern Lights have extended down below the Equator. The Jet Stream, once reliable and tame, has grown unpredictable and contorted, looping far north and then far south of its established flow.

We have had weather modification and geoengineering "treaties" like the United Nations ENMOD Treaty in place since the 1970s, and some of us were actually present when the Department of Defense altered the Monsoon in Southeast Asia, as part of its program of disruption and terror related to the Vietnam "Conflict".

Take a look at what China brags it can do, and what it apparently has done to us:

Now, take in the news from North Carolina:

Unnatural hurricane is forced deep inland bringing two times the annual flow over Niagara Falls down on Western North Carolina in only two hours, hitting the antique infrastructure of three dams on the North Fork River --- so the Floodgates were opened on the hapless people and towns downstream, and a wall of mud and water approximately forty feet high and moving nearly twenty miles an hour roared through the valleys and hollows like a freight train.

The people had no chance.

China apparently did this with the cooperation of both the former Municipal Agencies and Officers of the British Territorial U.S. Congress who funded this disaster. And then begged off, and offered the victims a whole $750, and said they were out of money because they spent it all on illegal migrants.

In response we have tales of White Hat Military forces and Red Hat Irregulars joining together and now calling themselves "the Union". Pardon us, but have we heard this before?

Why, yes, we have, that's exactly what the feckless Northern States-of-States and their British Territorial Allies called themselves during the so-called American Civil War---- and then proceeded to rape and pillage the same exact States of the Union where this disaster has occurred.

History repeats itself, if you don't study it, and object to re-runs.
