

International Public Notice: Caught

By Anna Von Reitz

We have repeatedly uncovered the secret role of the British Government in promoting conflict, war profiteering, and more.

As we say, the Brits are always, always, always at the bottom of the dogpile, with or without company.

From Gaza to Lebanon to Ukraine to North Carolina to Kenya to Hong Kong, they are there, wheedling, meddling, defrauding, impersonating, and otherwise promoting crimes and coercion.

Here we have their State of North Carolina Governor admitting to the plan to coercively strip and steal the private property interests of individual North Carolinans who are already victims of these floods:

This is how we have a "State of Israel, Inc." with a home office address in Kensington Palace. This is how we have a "President" Barack Obama, using the Social Security Number of a dead man, and actually being born in Kenya. Now, Kenya reappears as the hiding place of Bill Gates, Jr.

He has fled this country and is seeking asylum in Kenya, which confirms that he is a British Territorial Rat. And a Big Rat, too. He was given his own private military base at Eldoret and State privileges to protect him from charges brought by the Dutch Courts related to his role in the pandemic crimes.

Now all we have to do is cut all communications to Eldoret.

Gates' code name is "John Wilkes" as in "John Wilkes Booth" who similarly fled this country, sought asylum, and took service with the Pope following his assassination of Abraham Lincoln. Two big rats and a grudge match.

Kenya, like all other purportedly former Commonwealth countries, was given the British version of a revolving door treatment, emerging from the civilian Commonwealth Government's clutches in the 1960s, only to be re-occupied by British Territorial military forces. Kenya remains under unlawful and illegal foreign mercenary occupation ever since.

The single greatest threat to peace and abundance and happiness for the entire race of mankind, is the bifurcated British Government and their puppet masters managing the Holy Roman Empire --- the Roman Curia.

While pretending to champion freedom and democracy and to be friends of the American people, these deceitful bureaucrats have worked ceaselessly to abuse and undermine and embezzle from this country, to use our sons and daughters as cheap mercenaries, and to profit themselves unjustly from our assets and credit.

We have revealed that the Maestro in control of the WEF and UN (CORPORATION) and WHO and BIS is none other than the Royal Institute of International Affairs, just more proof of the malevolent, lawless, and grasping character of these institutionalized fraud artists and both their commercial corporations and municipal corporations.

Here's the latest --- $90 million given to a private lithium mining company by the Department of Defense, one of those companies lining up to steal the land and soil of North Carolina for their own unjust enrichment:

We'd say that the Vermin are well and truly exposed and caught acting under color of law, engaged in naked profiteering and land theft using powers of government that don't belong to these corporations.

There is no such thing as Federal Eminent Domain; they got away with these claims while building the Interstate Highway System only because the States were not in Session and not able to object and refute federal claims of Eminent Domain powers.

This earlier usurpation and fraud does not justify another.

There is nothing in the Federal Constitutions suggesting that any part of the Federal Government was ever granted any right to condemn, seize upon, or commandeer land and soil assets belonging to the Several States of the Union and the American People.
