

Cheating Melchizadek

By Anna Von Reitz

Abraham bribed a priest of an unknown God for a blessing, promising a tenth of the choicest of everything to the priests, who, two generations later, were “set apart” as the Levites.

So Abraham’s “Blessing” was the fruit of bribery.

Hmm.

Ask yourself— does our Creator stoop to accepting bribes for blessings? What could we possibly give or sacrifice to our Creator that he does not already have, or that was not given to us as a gift?

What kind of craziness is going on here?

It gets better.

Abraham’s Blessing (which he gained by bribing Melchizadek) is stolen from the rightful inheritor, Esau, by Abraham’s lying, cheating, cowardly Grandson Jacob, and his scheming Mother.

So, a “Blessing” bought by bribery is in turn stolen and comes into the possession of a Liar and a Thief.

Jacob, the Liar-Thief goes on to Father the Twelve Tribes, and he keeps his Grandfather’s deal with Melchizadek going by defining the Levites and setting a tenth portion of everything aside for them.

A lot of the Levite duties involve ritual killing of “sacrifices” to this Unknown God.

That includes ritual killing of human sacrifices.

The Bible makes plenty of references to this though the Churches try to downplay it and gloss it over.

Abraham readily accepted the idea that he had to kill his only Son, Isaac.

Later generations just as readily adopted turning God’s House into a slaughterhouse. Cattle, sheep, goats, even doves and sparrows were killed by these blood-thirsty madmen.

And the whole time they have been killing what they could never create or replace.

Over and over again throughout both the Old and New Testaments we are faced with violent, cruel, and bloody acts being adopted by the Israelites as acts of worship — from Circumcision to “passing their sons and daughters through the fire” — that is, burning their babies alive as more sacrifices.

Of course, they had to sacrifice the Son of God for their sins.

Such is the entire criminal logic of the Judeo-Christian heritage. What began with a bribe, proceeded with a theft, and ended with the murder of an innocent man.

Am I the only one on Earth not okay with this?

The only one among all the generations and nations of the Earth who has put together bribery, lies, theft, and murder — and deduced the identity of the Unknown God that Abraham was worshipping?

Satan.

Not the Creator. Not the true God.

That should be obvious, but it isn’t. Generations of people who readily call themselves “Christians” for no known reason, and other people who call themselves “Jews” for no known reason are fighting other people who call themselves “Muslims” for no known reason, and all their differences and grudges go back to this same crazy, criminal narrative.

This planet is not meant to be an insane asylum but we have turned it into one and it is well-past time that we looked at the actual content of this narrative and said, ——WTF?

Those who “cast Satan down into the sea” knew what they were doing.

They are responsible for Satan being here.

They are responsible for the destruction of the Earth and the misery of generations.

Am I the only one calling the Archangel Michael out for this?

What were you thinking, Michael? Just give Satan a little vacation at our expense? You were late for a date and had to go home and polish your armor?

Pfffttt!

These Vermin need to be out of here now, root, stem, and leaf. It should have been done long ago.

I am tired of waiting! Make it so!

I see and God sees the external source of the mayhem visited on us, and I call down the enforcement of the Universal Law and assert the right of Mankind to live in peace and to enjoy the inheritance that their Father has prepared for them.

Let it be with no further delays or excuses.
