

The United States Civil Flag of Peacetime

Civil Flag of Peace --Created in 1799 by Secretary of the Treasury Oliver Wolcott

Oliver Wolcott, Jr.

Oliver Wolcott Jr. was the 2nd United States Secretary of the Treasury, a United States Circuit Judge of the United States Circuit Court for the Second Circuit and the 24th Governor of Connecticut.

en.wikipedia.org

. Intended for peace time usage, denoting civil jurisdiction under the Constitution and common law. Has vertical stripes, blue stars on white background--last flown before Civil War with a few exceptions.