

International Public Notice: The Appearance of a Civilian Government

By Anna Von Reitz

The old UNITED STATES Corporation is no more. The old USA, Inc. is barely hanging on. What remains is the actual government, looming like a giant on the horizon, a figure terrifying for the bureaucrats but vaguely familiar. It's not just the owner's steward. It's the owner.

The past two weeks have seen a housecleaning fury which is unprecedented. This is taking place because the old UNITED STATES Corporation is in the final throes of bankruptcy and every one of its departments and agencies has to be fully audited as part of the bankruptcy settlement process.

It's not a coup. It's not politically motivated. It's business.

At the same time that Donald Trump's Administration is charged with performing this audit process, his own corporation, USA, Inc., (recently restructured and rebranded as The United States of America, LLC) is faced with many challenges and tough decisions.

It is tasked with dissolving or absorbing two-thirds of what we have known as "the Federal Government". The leadership of the USA, Inc. must carefully consider what parts of the old UNITED STATES, INC. are worth salvaging and paying for, and how best to jettison the rest?

No matter what they do, approximately a million and a half of former Federal workers are going to be out on the streets, swelling the unemployment numbers, and literally trillions of government deficit spending won't happen.

Not only will the trillions normally squandered by the UNITED STATES, INC. be absent from the world economy, but Mr. Trump is letting all the occupied European partner-countries know that the Free Ride is over and (1) they have to pay their own defense costs; (2) the USA, Inc. won't back them in their war-mongering; (3) if they continue promoting war in the Ukraine, they will have to pay for it all themselves.

The criminals had planned on having "the US" pay the butcher's bill for them and dig them out of debt; why not? The same plan has worked often enough before. Look at World War I and World War II, and all the rest of the over 200 "Conflicts" since then.

Only this time, don't look at these events as wars. Look at them as hostile business takeovers. Look at them in terms of seizing resources that belong to others. Look at them in terms of seizing property "abandoned" by all those murdered. Look at them in terms of erasing debt by erasing the people the debt is owed to.

It's not religion. It's not racial. It's not politics. It's business.

And now you understand the sudden need to "depopulate" the world. And you understand the Green New Deal. And you understand the drive behind the World Health Organization (WHO) and its attempted takeover.

It really doesn't matter what the excuse is.

In the 1930's the excuse was ethnic and religious. Now, it's health and environment.

Any excuse will do.

The result and the motivations underlying it all, are the same: crimes against humanity, propaganda, coercive control, denigration of individual rights and identities, fraud, piracy, unjust enrichment, unlawful conversion, undermining of any legitimate government, oh, and don't forget the Concentration Camps.

Can't have a Creditor Cleansing without those.

All of this is done to kill their creditors and avoid justice for themselves, regardless whatever the purported reasons for this may be.

We are dealing with an entrenched transnational crime syndicate with a known modus operandi.

They weasel in by pretending to have some legitimate purpose associated with an existing government -- for example, the Federal Reserve, or the AUSTRALIA Corporation. They embezzle freely and control and abuse their victims using the usual means of blackmailers, racketeers and extortioners, only they do it under color of law and use the machinery of government bureaucracy to accomplish their aims.

They borrow against collateral that belongs to other people, and when the credit raised from that collateral is maxed out--- and before the victims themselves have a chance to realize that they've been impersonated and defrauded --- they find an excuse, round up their creditors, and kill as many of them as possible.

They did it to the Germans, to the Jews, and now, they are trying to do it to us. En masse. The whole world.

Imagine that each country is an individual person who has suffered identity theft and had their credit cards stolen and charged up over limit by thieves. Imagine that we have caught the thieves, but they don't want to return all the assets and credit they've stolen. They want to kill us instead and wash their hands like Pontius Pilate.

Oh, well, they say, the victims weren't nice people. They were Jews. They were diseased. They were black. They were white. They caused carbon emissions. They were Catholic. They were Americans. They were Japanese.

They had genetic defects. They were Palestinians. They refused vaccination. They asked questions.

They were humans, not people.

They were transhumans, not people.

They were subhumans, not people.

Any excuse will do.

It all comes down to this --- do you lie or tell the truth?

That's the only thing that counts.

Pause and go back 160 years in America.

General U.S. Grant held the country, ignorant and gullible, in his grubby mercenary hands. His military government had a few obstacles to overcome.

First, being a Territorial "government" subcontractor, they were required to use our credit as their money. They couldn't issue actual money as a sovereign government. And they couldn't access our credit without action by our Congress. Two-blocked.

Another issue was the clear requirement that the military be subordinate to the civilian government; pretty hard to do, when your civilian overseers have, apparently, gone out of business.

So they impersonated our government and latched onto its assets and pretended to represent us.

They colluded with the HRE Municipal Subcontractors to act as the civilian government and appropriate our credit and "monetize" our assets for us.

They colluded with the Federal Reserve to issue debt notes, that is, I.O.U.s, based on our credit and assets.

Over time, the now-defunct UNITED STATES Corporation took over the role of our civilian government, and its officers appropriated credit that wasn't theirs, based on assets that weren't theirs, and spent the Federal Reserve's I.O.U.s recklessly on themselves and whatever else they wanted to spend on.

This created huge "government deficits" and also huge government debts owed to who? The private sector. To us.

With the UNITED STATES, INC. playing the part of our civilian government, and the USA, Inc., playing the part of our military and territorial government, they contrived to not only access our credit, but to establish a substitute civilian government.

Now that we've called the cards and demanded that our credit be put back on the books and that our assets be released to our control, the guilty parties want to kill us instead, keep their ill-gotten profits, and find another sucker. Or, alternatively, on the part of the British Territorial Government, pretend that they did their job honorably all these years and weren't complicit in this circumstance.

But they were.

The lawless Deep Staters don't care if it's China or Ukraine or even Russia, so long as there is a new host for the parasites. New resources to plunder. New public trusts to pillage.

Our point to the world-at-large is that these are criminals operating government infrastructure and institutions as crime syndicates, with entire huge bureaucracies devoted to preying upon their customers and employers.

What you are witnessing now is circumstantially a reprise of the French Revolution, in which a huge, over-bloated, quasi-private government bureaucracy gained control, used the King of France as a storefront for their borrowing and purported authority, ruthlessly plundered the people of France, and then, after a lot of blood-letting and blame, sought to make up their losses by invading other countries under Napoleon.

They've set us up the same way. They used our good name and our Title IV flag as their storefront instead of King Louis, but the story is the same.

As government Subcontractors, both the UNITED STATES Corporation and the USA, Inc., already had legitimate government functions to perform. They had their foot in the door.

It was only a matter of time for them to substitute their own corporate tribunals for our public courts, to develop their racketeering scheme by impersonating living people, then foisting corporate and public taxes and mortgages onto the victims, and then, to impose all these burdens under color of law.

They even prepared by shipping in 37,000 guillotines and having them distributed to military and civilian institutions throughout this country. When we say "reprise" of the French Revolution, this is literally what they are aiming at, right down to the details.

The Vermin actually responsible for this Mess live mostly in Europe. The true responsibility for all this lies with the Popes and the British Monarchs and those who are manipulating them behind the scenes.

They used the bankers and the secret societies as pawns and foot soldiers, right up until the moment, twenty years ago, when the bankers and secret societies decided to turn the tables on them.

It's strange how the servants become the masters.
And how the same evil still remains, entrenched.

Now we have a military alliance and we are back where we started with General Grant, the gullible world held in the hands of Donald Trump and Elon Musk and an unseen consortium of billionaires -- the New Larry and Peter Thiel, who have bankrolled the United States of America, LLC.

Just like the Bank of Scotland bankrolling The United States of America, Incorporated, in 1868.

Just like the Federal Reserve bankrolling the United States of America, Incorporated, in 1913.

Just like the IMF bankrolling the USA, INC. in 1953.

Yet, the truth is, that all the assets that they are using to leverage their "position" as our lords and masters, belong to us. All the credit derived from those assets, belongs to us. The truth is that if they were honest men, they would admit this and accept the authority of the long-lost American civilian government they were hired to protect in "good faith".

They would return control of the assets to our lawful government, which created whatever "government" they pretend to be or represent.

They would return the vast amounts of credit owed to the people of this country as prepaid credit, as we propose to do ourselves, under our own power.

They would not offer to "open up the credit side of the ledger" when we are standing here in our own right demanding that the assets and the credit be returned to the Americans they were purloined from.

"The positive side of the US ledger" that Secretary Bessant is talking about doesn't belong to any version of "the US" or to any U.S. Citizens; "the positive side of the US ledger" belongs to the defrauded Americans and their intestate infant decedent estates, which we are all owed and which we claim.

From the moment that these Bounders seized upon the assets and contracts of the original Federal Republic until today, they have still not honored their contracts, still not told the American People the truth, still not backed off their phony salvage claims.

Our assets are on their balance sheet because of their undisclosed registration of American babies as U.S. Citizens.

We are all owed the return of our assets and our credit, unencumbered and unharmed, without any presumption of trusteeship or ownership interest on their part at all.

Their seaman's estate trusts established in our names via unconscionable consent are owed to us and so are the American infant decedent estate trusts that they robbed from us as babies.

The "positive side of the US ledger" is actually the positive side of the American ledger and Secretary Bessent needs to know and understand that --- not just shuffle it off, as if we all knowingly agreed to British Territorial Citizenship, and volunteered to be Subjects of their Monarch.
