PS -- Is there any chance you could scan the pages and send to Paul Stramer to post on my website for people? It will take some time for me to lay hands on actual physical copies of these Field Manuals.

Okay, thanks, that is exactly the missing piece we needed.

This has been a long time coming--- since 1865. But I can finally feel the facade giving way and crumbling and the fresh air entering the room at last.

THANK YOU!!!!

I knew that if enough Americans got their thinking caps on and started digging, it would all come to light.

I have been saying for years that we are being railroaded under "Martial Common Law" --- the same courts they set up in the Ten Southern Districts in 1865, just expanded---- and what you have brought forward proves the point very neatly. May I ask where you dug up the specific references and where I might get a copy?

Thanks very much for bringing this to my attention. I hope we may correspond more on these matters.

Editors Note:

The manuals are now on Anna's website at the following link addresses.

<http://annavonreitz.com/FM-27-5-1947.pdf>

Go to page 20 to see how the military establishes courts and administrates law.

http://annavonreitz.com/mil\_gov-civil\_affairs.pdf

Go to page 16 to see how the military regulates the BAR and courts.

Consider the facts that there was no declaration of war for the "Civil War" in America, and there was never any peace treaty ending that conflict!
