

The Crown "Offer" Rejected

By Anna Von Reitz

It's said that the Company of Merrie Men -- the progenitor of today's Bar Association -- arrived in Britain as a troupe of actors and "mummers" -- pantomimes, during Shakespeare's last days at the Globe Theater. He commented on their arrival and deemed it an "ill wind". We are left to assume that he was already aware of their activity on the Continent.

This past weekend, the British people witnessed a pantomime in which the former Prince Charles was ostensibly being crowned -- at least verbally, as the Protestant King of England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, but was actually crowned as His Imperial Majesty and a pagan Roman Emperor, instead.

That's what the Imperial Crown used in the ceremony means, and it is a public admission -- entirely silent, but obvious -- of what is actually going on. It doesn't matter what they say, it only matters what they do.

Imperial crowns belong to Emperors, not Kings. The same kind of crown landed on the heads of Napoleon Bonaparte and Kaiser Wilhelm II just prior to the demise of their respective empires.

So, after all these years, Charles III isn't King of England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales. He couldn't be, thanks to The Norman Settlement. Like his ancestors, he is limited to working as the Pope's Overseer of the Commonwealth, so not only is he not a King, he's a Protestant obligated to serve the Pope, plus, he's a German who has just been crowned as a Roman Emperor.

We couldn't possibly make this up.

This situation and the failure of the British CROWN to act upon BREXIT and the failure of the former Queen's Government to effectively monetize the British Pound Sterling (not that they could do that on their own) has led a group of British Landlords who have reclaimed their natural political birthright to join our Claim and act on behalf of their lawful Government.

They claim the land and soil of Great Britain, including but not limited to England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales, the Orkney Islands and other outlying British Possessions worldwide. They claim the British Pound Sterling and the Gold Sovereign as their lawful money, and they stand with the Lord High Steward, Ivan Talbot, as the actual Throne is unoccupied.

They reject Charles III's offer to reign over them as an Emperor sitting on The Chair of the Estates --- estates formed as a result of the original Dead Baby Scam we have described earlier --- instead of the Throne owed to England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales.

They decry the attempted substitution of an Emperor for a King which they witnessed on Saturday. They refuse the offered contract on behalf of themselves and their lawful government. They cite the High Court case of YAH v Regina as historic precedent, revealing purposeful fraud and substitution of Offices, which is happening again.

As a result no contract exists and none is agreed upon with regard to the Kingdom and Countries of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales and the British Possessions worldwide. In the interim and until the actual Throne is occupied, the land and soil jurisdictions will be administered by the traditional lawful government under the guidance of the Lord High Steward; whatever administration is provided by Charles III acting as the comptroller of Municipal Corporations, must be regarded as a private Subcontractor arrangement with the Pope and the City of Rome.

Further confirmation of this deliberate action will be forthcoming. They simply asked that Cardinal Mamberti and the Vatican Chancery Court and the Archbishop of Canterbury be fully informed that the Imperial Crown offer has been rejected, and so, Notice is hereby served to the Principals and the Agents.

We regret that it has come to this, but the defense of the British Homeland against legalized usurpation against the Constitutional Monarchy by foreign Municipal Corporations must be objected to, both privately and in public.
