

International Public Notice: To David Rene de Rothschild

By Anna Von Reitz

It has been more than 800 years since there was a Golden Jubilee and the Double Golden Jubilee is overdue.

It was this fact and the consequences of it -- the effect this has had upon the whole world economy -- that caused us to go to Vatican City and address the Holy See about it.

While there, we directly, physically observed, that their keyholes are out of alignment.

Even the keeping of time has been distorted over this failure to peacefully forgive debt and return ownership when due.

As a banker from a banking family, you should understand this. As a Jew who is presumed to be familiar with Old Testament Law, you should understand this. The world economic system is supposed to be turned over like a compost heap on a regular schedule, with debt forgiveness and reversionary trust interests being exercised every seven and forty-nine years.

We do know the quandary you are in, as you don't really have an ability to forgive these specific debts that are crushing the whole world, but we have the answer and the receipts, if you listen.

Having discussed this situation at length with the Church officials, and with them having admitted that yes, this is exactly right: it has been over 800 years

-- there remains the necessity of actually refreshing the system and accepting the Golden Jubilee, and we know how to do it.

This requires the Federal Reserve to return all the purloined, assumed, and forced collateral assets to the actual owners, including all the so-called Legacy Trusts. This might sound like figurative suicide to you, but it is better than any other alternative you have, as it passes through the veil (or the Red Sea if you like) and leaves everyone on solid ground again.

We understand the various arguments about who the actual owners are-- at least from a theoretical standpoint, but this cannot be used as an excuse for war and continued paralysis. The actual owners who are now in existence and who represent the progeny and interests of those who went before are present in the form of the living people of each nation.

As you are no doubt aware, negotiations about the Avila Family Trust assets and their use going forward were supposed to take place in 2005; the Department of the Federal Reserve failed to show up at the negotiation table.

This signaled an ongoing and purposeful policy of avoiding the negotiation and a refusal to recognize the rightful Inheritor and his right to not only settle the use of his own Family Trust assets, but also the numerous other "Legacy Trusts" that he has unlimited General Power of Attorney to control and distribute.

Ironically, you and your family have claimed the right to do this work "for" him via unlawful conversion of his political status and claims of abandonment; how can you hope to keep your own property, if you insist on cheating and ignoring him and all the others like him?

In this world, the laws of karma give and take. Now is the time to give and to bring an end to this stalemate by peaceful means.

The estate of Severino Sta Romano amounts to a few hundred thousand dollars; the rest of the vast holdings "under his name" resulted from his for-hire job as a professional precious metals depositor.

Severino provided for the remedy of this situation to the actual Inheritor of the Avila Family Trust before his death in 1974; all else has been a comedy of greed and errors.

The lawful and legal Inheritor of the Avila Family Trust immigrated to the United States where he became a resident; he later decided to adopt an American State of the Union as his permanent home, whereupon all merely presumed waivers of his estate and claims of public interest became moot.

He is owed the return of all his interests in Master Accounts 333, 555, 777, and 999, and control of those interests. His money was used to rebuild the world after World War II and provided all or a substantial part of the asset collateral base for all 63 central banks in the BIS system--- including the Federal Reserve Banks.

Which brings us back to your part in all of this.

We hear that you are holed up in Geneva and that various factions of the CIA are protecting you, while other factions of the CIA want to murder you; we also hear that BRICS is pretending to be the only owners of gold wealth sufficient to back the world economy, when in fact, the actual gold on deposit with the banks is sufficient and more is available upon demand, so long as you do the right thing that should have been done in 2005.

We can tell you right now that that negotiation involves establishing a firm monetary system for traditional international trade and Merchant Banks and a prepaid credit system for living people -- not an empty meritocracy, but an actual repayment system.

Negotiate. Come to the table. The only one who can rightfully forgive debt or discharge it, either, is the actual owner of the assets and credit. It's not something you can do in his name, but it is something he can do, and which he is potentially willing to do as part of the long overdue Golden Jubilee.

Every day that you delay this necessity, is a day that the burdens inexorably increase, and your enemies make merry because of your failure to deal with the preferential Creditors.

If you act wisely now, the entire world dynamic of banking -- both private and public -- can be peacefully restored and refreshed.

We are in contact with the BRICs as interested Third Parties, both in terms of the gold owed to the unincorporated United States of America, and the assets that need to be returned to the actual Legacy Trust holders and Donors to the Global Collateral Accounts.

Don't make this harder than it has to be. The embarrassment of being labeled a dishonest banker and being dragged from your Geneva enclave like an angry badger is your only other alternative. Here, you have an opportunity to resolve the conundrum honorably, with everyone being happy with the outcome.
