

Dear Mr. Trump -- We Have the Cure, So Round 'Em Up

By Anna Von Reitz

This ridiculous "simulated war exercise" is going to turn hot, comet or no comet, and you might as well know that you are facing the actual, true, Living God as a possible adversary. That is not a good position for you or this country to be in.

Our lawful government has the cure for the corona virus and every other SARS virus on the planet. It's a technology that can destroy every such virus, natural or man-made.

We also have the cure for what ails the Treasury. Re-venue our assets ---physical and credit -- to us, and we will pay everyone. It's simple bookkeeping. Do it now, or you will cause a global meltdown and everyone involved in causing such a meltdown, including you, will die.

These are simple facts, published in the Bible.

Continue on the path you are on and you will find no answers, just more problems set up like a maze or obstacle course. Continue to listen to Gates and Fauci -- the self-interested monsters -- and you and your Administration will go down in history as a grotesque failure.

Pay attention. The CDC is a private vaccine manufacturer. The CDC is a private vaccine manufacturer. The CDC is a private vaccine manufacturer.

Fauci is nothing but a self-interested rat, and so is Gates along with Soros, --- all engaged in causing a problem in order to profit from it.

Arrest them. Hang them by their heels and force them to divulge what they know. And then put them before a Firing Squad for their crimes against humanity. 7 Billion people will applaud.
