

International Public Notice: The Democratic Party Insurrectionists

By Anna Von Reitz

We find it necessary at this point to comment on the shenanigans of our public employees and their cherished political parties and their form of "unions".

Here, again, we suffer from the pervasive semantic deceits that have been the stock-and-trade of the British Con Artists. Our "unions" are not their "unions".

When we talk about "the" Union, we are talking about the soil jurisdiction of the States, the living people and the surface of the land known as the soil, organized as unincorporated Counties throughout our country. That's our Union.

When they talk about "the" Union, they are talking about mercenary forces welded together in common cause as the "North" in the American Civil War, or, more recently, they have been calling a coalition of purported White Hat and Red Hat military allies "the Union".

For us, the Union is civilian and universal; everyone in this country lives in an unincorporated county that has physical borders and features.

For them, the Union is a military coalition of one kind or another.

Always, our unions are about living people.

Always, their unions are about businesses and corporations --- and political associations, like the Democratic Party and the Republican Party.

These Political Parties are business organizations engaged in lobbying and promoting various topics and actions that at least purportedly, benefit their members.

Traditionally, the Democratic Party has promoted the working class and sought better conditions for the poor, the sick, and the disabled; however, there has always been another face to the Democratic Party -- they were, for example, the Party that championed the creation of a third-rate citizenship status for Negroes, the Party that abolished private slavery with one hand and created public slavery with the other.

That wasn't the Republicans. That was the Democrats.

There have been other times in our history when double-dealing Democrats, especially Southern Democrats, have proven to be extremely toxic, violent, and sneaky. They regularly create problems in order to solve them and engage in anti-intuitive political action campaigns that appear to be for the public good, but never actually deliver the benefits they advertise.

For example, when black people in this country stood together under the "Civil Rights" banner hoisted by Dr. Martin Luther King, many Democrats gave lip-service, but not one of them pointed out that civil rights aren't really rights; they are merely privileges that can be granted or taken away with equal ease.

So all these people struggled and some died in the name of civil rights and were left believing that finally, they had parity with the whites --- but that's not what happened. What they wanted were "natural and unalienable rights", what they got were "civil rights".

The effect was to ingratiate the Democratic Party with black voters, without actually delivering any guaranteed natural and unalienable rights.

This is being replayed right now with the illegal immigrants that members of the Democratic Party have allowed to cross our border. They sing the song of freedom, but what they actually deliver is slavery and death.

Every single illegal immigrant is being forced to take the infamous Covid-19 jab, which more or less guarantees that they will be dead within seven years. It also greatly reduces fertility, so these new migrants are unlikely to reproduce.

So why are they being invited in, if the endgame is simply to kill them and create a burden for the healthcare system here?

The answer is that these people are worth more on the stock market as U.S. Citizens than they are as Hondurans, Mexicans, Chinese, or Iraqis.

To make this concept clear, Holsteins are worth more in the dairy cow industry than Guernsey cattle. What if you disguise Guernsey cattle as Holsteins? Their value goes up quite astronomically. And the Farmer benefits from this fraud because his herd is now worth more. He has more collateral to borrow against, too.

The Democrats are functioning as the Farmer, so they want as many migrants as they can pack across the border --- purely and selfishly for their own material benefit, but to hear them talk about this situation, it's all about peace, and freedom, and individual opportunity.

Now, as always, they speak with a forked tongue, promising one thing and delivering another.

Observably, individual persons and patrons of the Democrat Party have been seeking to foment what they are calling a "civil war" in this country. It started with Mr. Obama trying to raise the race card from the dead and proceeded through the pandemic, and George Soros' funding of the 2020 riots.

They've tried all the old tried-and-true divide and conquer strategies without result: black v white, rich v poor, Christian v Jew, Christian v Muslim, even vaccinated v unvaccinated, and now migrants v native population ----- and nothing has caught fire.

Based on their mindless hatred for a single man, Donald Trump, whose actual administration did more to help poor people, including the Democrat's own constituency, than any President in recent history, these lunatics are calling for civil war if Trump is elected:

<https://www.infowars.com/posts/civil-war-alert-top-democrats-call-for-armed-uprising-if-trump-wins-election-roger-stone-responds>

Read this: if their own constituents wake up and realize that they had it better under Trump than they've had it for decades -- more jobs, more money, more opportunity, and that the Democrats have instead delivered war, poverty, and chaos ----- the Democratic Party is done.

Rather than going out with some dignity, they propose as true Insurrectionists always do, to sacrifice the lives and dreams of other people on the altar of their own failed ideology.

To the Electors: we've had enough. To the watching world: we are not deceived.
