

International Public Notice: Donald Trump Revealed

By Anna Von Reitz

It has come to our attention that former President of the United States, Inc., Donald John Trump, has filed a Uniform Commercial Code claim to own the Municipal franchise named after him and also to discharge all the tax debts of the franchise via assignment to the Secretary of the Treasury (Puerto Rico, we are assuming).

This leaves the question of what capacity is he acting in? He still isn't acting as a living man, but as a franchise of some other corporation. The answer as to which corporation has, at least apparently, been revealed. In the UCC filing attached, he describes himself as a member of One Heaven, which is a weird, quasi-religious Secret Society, that has once again, established a corporation calling itself "The United States of America, Incorporated" and at last report, filed for incorporation in India.

This is just a repeat of what we have seen ever since the so-called American Civil War --- a group of British Territorials forming a commercial or municipal corporation --- naming it after us or our government, and then promoting this impersonation scheme as a means to access our credit and commit crimes of personage and barratry. They must be stopped.

If indeed Donald Trump has chosen to align himself with The Reign of the Heavens Society, this is very bad news for sane people everywhere.

The Reign of the Heavens Society and its "One Heaven" offshoot, represents a group of plagiarists who are not only trying to usurp upon the identity and trademarks of the American Federation of States, our unincorporated Public

Instrumentality which has been doing business under the name The United States of America since 1776, but which has liberally plagiarized the work of Frank O'Collins, a once-very-high ranking Catholic priest, who left the Church and developed a utopian model for a new social order that he called "Ucandia" and published on the internet for several years.

We became aware of Frank and his work circa 2005 and read it with great interest; he established, in theory, a new Canon Law, three new forums of government --- One Heaven, One Purgatory, One Hell --- that basically correspond to the three jurisdictions of the old system --- Air, Land, and Sea --- and adopts new time and weights and measures standards, etc., but, at the end of the day, is actually a rehash of the Roman Catholic Church and the Unam Sanctam Trust hierarchy into a more secular forum, albeit, still presided over by a group of quasi-religious elitists.

The Reign of the Heavens Society took Frank's Ucandia model, almost verbatim, plagiarizing vast quantities of it to create it's version of Ucandia --- which they call "One Heaven", and apparently, Donald John Trump counts himself a "member" of this absurd, criminal group of quasi-religious elitists.

Let us further explain that on the evening of December 20th 2012, I received a communication from this group saying that if I didn't sign up by midnight and assign all value of my personal life estate to them, I would be forever classed as a lesser being and be unable to participate as one of the "144,000" disciples of their movement who were destined to rule the world.

I wrinkled my nose as any sane person should. I also "failed" to choose a noble name for myself, such as "Lady" Hepzibah Willow Moon Doggie Starlight. And I kept my assets, too, instead of donating them to The Reign of the Heavens Society.

If this is what Donald Trump is believing in and following as his guide, spiritual or material, and trying to promote, as a "member of One Heaven" --- he is not mentally competent and must be removed from office, just as the Government of India must do it's Due Diligence and remove "The United States of America, Incorporated" or any similar corporation infringing on our identity --- such as "the American Government, Inc." --- from its registry.

Every sane person worldwide is hereby provided with Due Notice and Process that this gang of thieves, plagiarists, and co-conspirators has, apparently, numbered

Donald John Trump among its members, and that he is now attempting to use their methods to discharge the tax obligations of the Municipal franchise named after him, against the very corporation that he is purportedly the "President" of, a conflict of interest if there ever was one.

All countries that maintain corporate registries are forewarned that this identity theft is being attempted against our lawful national government and our country as a whole. The same kind of identity theft by incorporated entities infringing on the names and trademarks of actual nations has led to widespread credit hacking and crimes of state by these international pirates and the banks are fully liable for allowing this to go on.

ALL banks in the central bank system are forewarned that the commercial banks were foreclosed by our actual government and these Bounders do not represent us; as a result, their claims to "own all US Banks" are invalid and False Claims in Commerce. We are the Creditors and they are not our Representatives.

This revelation of Donald John Trump's affiliation with a dreadful secret society of criminals attempting to form a rehash of the old Roman Catholic Unam Sanctam Trust structure under their own control is repugnant and frightening to say the least.

No doubt they can find 144,000 elitists willing to rule over the rest of humanity and no doubt they imagine that they can plagiarize Frank O'Collins and propose all manner of legal chicanery as an excuse for their venal activities, but the rest of us are not deaf, dumb, or blind and must take immediate action to put an end to their organization and its pretenses.

Please consider The Reign of the Heavens Society and its corporations and names, including "One Heaven" to be a national security threat against our country and all countries on Earth.

Until further notice, consider Donald John Trump to be one of the members of this dreadful Secret Society and take appropriate action.

We are attaching proof of the Uniform Commercial Claim validating our position and Mr. Trump's admission of being a "member of One Heaven". Mr. Trump should, of course, be allowed to further elaborate, confirm, or deny that he made this filing. We are dealing with pirates here, people who have no moral compass, and anything --- including a claim made "for" Donald John Trump --- is possible.

Please also bear in mind that our Commercial Claims to own and hold in trust all American Assets and to bypass all assertions of British Territorial Citizenship are fully cured and vastly pre-date all commercial claims made by anyone else. Please also bear in mind that the assets of the former Confederate States, that is, States-of-States, belong to the States of the Union, which are members of our unincorporated Federation of States.
