

The Duplicity of Evil

By Anna Von Reitz

I can tell that many people continue to be confused by the concept that evil men and women pretend to be good, that they "talk the talk", but then, fail to walk the walk; even Satan appears to be an "angel of light".

But what do you expect? These people worship "The Father of All Lies".

They are consummate Liars, first, last, and always. Their aversion to the Truth is so ingrained that they will automatically accuse their opponents of being or doing what they are and what they do.

To overcome these Enemies it is necessary to become aware of them and their beliefs and their activities. As ugly as it is, and as regrettable as it is that we must trouble ourselves with them and their insanity, we cannot just muddle along like sheep in the presence of wolves.

To better familiarize yourselves with the Dark Side of the Roman Catholic Church--- the "other" so-called "secular" pagan religion that has infiltrated the Christian Church and used the Church as a storefront--- please read the topic sections here:

<https://web.archive.org/web/20160306092306/http://one-evil.org/content/home.html>

This does not in any way suggest that every Catholic is a closet pagan, but it is equally certain that some of them are, and that this has been the circumstance for a very long time. Certain Orders within the Church, such as the Dominicans, are more suspect because of their history and the nature of their activities, such as the Inquisition. Some communities and enclaves are more likely centers of these evils.

We have seen a great increase in these evil beliefs, ideas, and practices in recent years in places like Las Vegas, Atlantic City, San Francisco, New York, Chicago, Miami, Washington, DC--- and also in small towns and rural communities where the population is less aware of this evil, and less guarded against it as a result.

Forewarned is forearmed. We must be resolute in our opposition and in upholding the basic decency of the Public Law and in enforcing the Public Law.

Do your paperwork: www.annavonreitz.com, Article #928, and join your State Jural Assembly: www.national-assembly.net, contentmanager1@yahoo.com.

See this article and over 1500 others on Anna's website here: www.annavonreitz.com
To support this work look for the PayPal button on this website.