

Notice of Prior Established Default and Liability

By Anna Von Reitz

This is Notice to the Bank of International Settlements, headquartered in Basel, Switzerland, it's Trustees, Board Members, Settlers, Assigns, and Accounts: you have previously been given Due Process and Notice and have been addressed both directly and via Agents to Principals regarding the liabilities you have promoted and accepted.

It has come to our attention that you have once again changed the date for Basel III Compliance and that this is creating a worldwide banking panic which is unnecessary and which will predictably result in chaos, economic losses, and massive loss of life for no sane reason.

This is to remind you that you are already in cured Default and that continued mismanagement and malevolent behavior will only increase your overall liability and the liability of all your partners, subsidiaries, franchises and agents. We must also remind you that any further breach of trust is a breach of fiduciary duty, which carries a penalty of 800 X the damages which are already published and set at $1,000,000,000.00 per life lost or maimed.

You will return to the original agreed upon compliance date of January of 2023, or you will bear the additional fines, fees, and penalties, which will result in systemic liquidation of all member banks, plus civil and criminal prosecution in international courts.

This liability is pre-established, cured, and non-negotiable.
