

They WANT You to "Express the Trust"

By Anna Von Reitz

This morning, as I am attempting to increase Public Awareness of the actual problems that beset our world, endanger our financial future, and as I strive to enlighten people about history and facts that they clearly do not know....and need to know..... I get this on my desk, a classic example of disinformation, fear-mongering, and outright lies, all encased in Bible Babble, to make the Perpetrator out to be a good Christian.

It was a rant claiming that part of the 928 documentation that I have made available to people wishing to establish their correct political status as Americans is a fraud designed to "steal" non-existent "Birth Certificate Trusts" and make myself the supposed victim's personal Fiduciary, having powers of attorney over them and their estates, etc., etc., etc. They also promoted the idea that Americans should "Express the Trust" --- but didn't touch upon the consequences of doing that.

Good Christians don't lie, cheat, slander, steal, kill or do "hit campaigns". They certainly don't give people bad advice or promote disinformation or advocate letting criminals off the hook in exchange for peace and payola.

Nothing in the 928 paperwork seizes upon any assets belonging to any American. Nothing in the 928 names me as their attorney. Nothing in the 928 paperwork names me as their personal Fiduciary. These ideas are being promulgated to mislead people who can't read well enough to discern these facts for themselves. Go back and read and re-read the actual words until the meaning sinks in.

The Birth Certificates are Clearinghouse Receipts --- receipts like coat check receipts exchanged for your actual birthright estate, without your knowledge or agreement.

The Bonds attached to those receipts are not bonds in the sense of Savings Bonds, they are Performance Bonds, based on the estimated value of your lifetime labor as either: (1) an indentured servant known as a U.S. Citizen voluntarily subjecting themselves to peonage in service to the British Queen, or (2) a Municipal citizen slave, voluntarily donating their estate in exchange for political asylum and basics of life.

Those Performance Bonds obligate you to surrender your ability to own private property and pay large percentages of your lifetime earnings to predatory foreign governments --- the British Crown operating the Internal Revenue Service, and the Vatican operating the IRS.

The Birth Certificates obligate you to a lifetime of bondage. They are proof that you were human trafficked as a baby into foreign jurisdictions, like a little sailor being cast adrift and shanghaied into the French Foreign Legion. Those Birth Certificates are evidence of crime committed against you and that is the only "value" they have for you.

Did you or your parents knowingly, willingly, voluntarily, and with full disclosure volunteer to waive or donate your birthright estate as an American?

Did you authorize the creation of any Territorial or Municipal Trust in your name? For the vast majority of Americans, the answer to both questions is a resounding, "No!"

So please tell me why you would ever "express the Trust" and claim that you agreed to any such thing?

Let's look at the "Express the Trust" process --- you come in and claim that you are the Donor and Beneficiary of the estate TRUST operated under your NAME. What does that do? It makes you complicit in the fraud that has been committed against you. It says, yeah, I volunteered for all that, and I am here to tell you what I want you to do for me in exchange....

Of course, the Perpetrators are delighted. You just admitted that you are in on the fraud and voluntarily gave up your estate and entrusted it to them, and now you are naming them as your Fiduciary, entrusted to administer your estate for you and you are giving them instructions.

They hop right to it. And they are oh, so obliging, too.

Why shouldn't they be? You just gave them a total Get Out of Jail Free Card. And you just gave them your estate as an American, to use as chattel for their profit, in exchange for doing some small service for you ---- such as dropping court proceedings that don't apply to you anyway.

The promoters of this say, if you don't "Express the Trust" an "implied trust" exists, and they just go ahead and administer it any which way they want to, because you are not identifying yourself as the "Donor" and "Beneficiary" and instructing them.

I say there is no trust involved, no implied trust, and no actual trust that you ever agreed to.

I say that you were merely "presumed" to be the Donor of a Municipal "public trust" that was established in your NAME and used to control you and your assets and also used to bilk you silly.

I say, what good does it do you to "Express the Trust" the way they want you to "Express the Trust" in order to get out of a traffic ticket or avoid $1400 in property taxes you don't actually owe --- when it means that you sacrifice your birthright for a pot of porridge?

How's that for a good Biblical Analogy to put across what is actually happening when you "Express the Trust"?

Your land and home, your freedom, your identity, your money, and everything else, in exchange for your Employees to respect your Constitutional Guarantees, and your status as their Employer? Say, what?

No, what needs to happen is for all these "implied" and "assumed" and "presumed" trusts and actions and Legal Suppositions to be challenged across the board, with no admissions and no excuses.

What needs to happen is a Systemic Correction in which all these foreign practices are overturned and Americans step forward as the free men and women that they actually are, and for all these phantom PERSONS to disappear just as quickly as they were created out of thin air by the charlatans attempting to cashier and latch upon your assets---and do it with your permission, no less, when you "Express the Trust".

I'll express them right on out of here. Give me some tar and a rail.

The idea that I am doing what they are doing is just more of their same old crap, their constant blaming and accusing others of doing the dirt they are doing themselves.

There needs to be a calling out of the Bushwah. All of it.

I am the unpaid, attacked, slandered, and kicked Fiduciary for The United States of America, our unincorporated Federation of States ----because someone had to do it, or you would all be evicted and speak Chinese by now.

That's right, Uncle Joe and Company and Idiot Boy in Canada cut a land deal to sell off huge portions of America and Canada to pay their debts and leave them with nice, fat personal fortunes for their "service". The only problem is, they have to get rid of all of you, first.

Enter the "depopulation" agenda and the jab and all the rest of it.

Being the Fiduciary for The United States of America does not mean that I am your personal Fiduciary. I am not dictating what you do with your personal assets. I am preserving your assets for you to come home and claim.

I act entirely in the international and global jurisdictions. I don't have a thing to do with what brand of toilet paper you use and I have less than no interest in running for any political office.

What I care about is preserving your rights and freedoms and assets, because I don't want to be the last living American, sitting here all by myself on a rock in Alaska.

If you pay any attention at all to what I write and what I am telling you, if you observe the extent and complexity and knowledge of what is being reported back to you, you should know that I am not a petty person with a limited intellect.

So, after all you've been through, and all the confusion, and all the fraud and deceit and betrayal that you are waking up to ---- is it hard to know what to do? Is it hard to trust anyone who is smarter or more experienced than you?

Damn straight it is, but you can at least think things through from Point A to Point B, and observe the world for yourselves. You can make a commitment to the Truth. You can get off your couch and give a rat's rump about your world and your fellow man.
