

Why Extend Sovereignty?

By Anna Von Reitz

I have been asked why William Belcher extended sovereignty to all the soldiers who fought in the Revolution and "every Mother's son and daughter" born on the land afterward.

Simple.

To stop what the rats are trying to pull right now.

Look at what they are doing. They are trying to claim that we are all unaccountably "absent" ---- "at sea". They are trying to say that our land jurisdiction is vacated, so that they have a basis for claiming it.

But, with millions upon millions of Americans who are innately sovereign scattered all over the world, all that is necessary is for one of us to remember who and what we are and to "come home" and announce the fact.

Well, we are here.

We remember who we are.

We claim our names and our estates.
