

International Public Notice: "Fatigued By Anti-Semitism"

By Anna Von Reitz

Let's be perfectly, absolutely clear -- those who currently claim to be Jews and who form the bulk of the population of Israel and provide its leadership, are not Semites. They are Zionists from central Europe, genetically, culturally, and in fact.

Zionism is a philosophical and political offshoot of Fabianism combined with the most repugnant teachings of the Talmud; Zionists are racists and fascists and they adopted the Nazi emblems, which they still display today.

They are not Hebrews. They are not Semitic. They are not related to modern Arabs. They are more closely related to Estonians and Armenians and some enclaves in Russia, who call themselves "Russian" but are not Russians.

This is a common theme throughout the history of these people--- always pretending to be somebody else.

So let's get clear about who and what we are dealing with in the Mideast: we are dealing with racist, elitist, fascist nutcases, who have adopted the religion of Judaism-- at least superficially-- and who merely pretend to have racial ties to the Semitic people of the region, because that bolsters their own claims to the land there.

Netanyahu, for example, changed his name to Netanyahu. His actual family name was obviously Eastern European. This has been an established practice among Israeli leaders for decades. They change their Eastern European names to something that sounds more Semitic, but they are not Semites, not related to the Arabs in the region at all.

Ironically, though these people scream loudest about "anti-Semitism" and form organizations to combat "anti-Semitism", they are actually condemning themselves, as they are implacable haters and destroyers of the Arabian peoples of the Middle East, who actually are Semites.

This too, is part of the history and practice of these people --- to turn everything on its head, upside down and backwards. They scream about "anti-Semitism" and pretend to be Semites themselves, while destroying the only actual Semites in the room.

These are not, generally speaking, traditional practices of the Hebrews, but stem instead from their Israelite brethren who adopted the religion of their Canaanite and Samaritan neighbors, which was an early form of Satanism mixed with Greek pantheon worship and Egyptian ritual magic.

Tracking them down through the centuries under various names, including a stint as the Phoenicians, they have a special affiliation with the sea, with piracy, with theater, and with fraud and deceit of all kinds. On land, they have often been nomadic or transient traders, especially in coastal areas of the oceans and major inland waters, like the Black and Caspian Seas.

Sooner or later, the local populations figure out where their money and livestock are going, and why their children are disappearing. This then results in the suppression and persecution of these people, to the extent that they can be identified.

What then, do these people actually believe?

They obviously believe that the entire rest of the world is stupid.

Dumb as rocks.

Prey.

They operate on these assumptions as long as they can, and then, always prepared, they skip town. They simply vanish in the night and move on. They keep their shoes beside their beds and traveling coats with passports and money already in their pockets, ready to flee at a moment's notice.

Over the centuries their frequent decampments -- and the losses they suffer each time they are forced to leave -- has taught them to build their businesses around mobility, too. They learned to have their ships ready at the docks, their horses saddled and ready to ride, and their businesses entrenched at multiple locations in different countries.

Their history is pockmarked with some of the greatest disappearing acts on record --- like the disappearance of the Phoenicians, the disappearance of the Dutch East India Company together with all their ships and tonnage of cargo, the disappearance of the British East India Company, and, the disappearance of dozens of national governments usurped upon by corporations in the business of providing essential government services.

Keep your eyes open. We are about to witness the disappearance of the Federal Reserve, and probably, shortly after that, the disappearance of the International Monetary Fund --- which will destabilize the central bank system under the purported control of the Bank for International Settlements.

They are also getting ready to "roll up" the stock markets and currency exchanges of the world, like one of those games kids play on a piece of painted canvas.

The only reason that we won't see the complete and almost instant disappearance of the modern financial world, including the Securities and Exchange Commission, all the commercial banks, and commodity (rigging) commissions, is that: (1) they've hatched a new scheme called the "Quantum Financial System" in cooperation with Communist China; (2) not everyone is as stupid as they think.

Mr. Trump and his Associates should rethink their go-forward plan in detail. They should arrest the entire Biden Administration and the "US" Congress, and show them the same hospitality they shared with the January 6th Protestors. The so-called Quantum Financial System aka Operation Crimson Gate, should be abandoned.

The American Government, as opposed to the U.S. Government, has its own competent financial architecture in place; we suggest that our Employees use it and stop trying to make themselves look like heroes when they have been part of the problem since 1863.

We are not accepting any kind of enslavement by anyone for any reason, including "security" concerns --- not financial enslavement, not legalized enslavement of our "persons", no kind of enslavement by our employees or the banks that have colluded in this monstrous travesty --- none at all.

We don't accept the "offer" of "biometric" identification of bank users nor the licensing of banks. We don't accept the "offer" of a small portion of what is owed to us as an undisclosed "settlement" of the Perpetrator's debts. We don't accept any offer of contract beyond the clearly stipulated provisions of The Constitution of the United States of America, and we are content that Rome and London and Jerusalem should all be bombed into oblivion before "the Plan" goes another step.

We are fatigued by claims of racism, ethnic and religious prejudice, and all the other fatuous divisive nonsense that distracts everyone (else) from the actual issues. The people of this country own it and our Government is the civilian government that the military mercenaries are supposed to be obeying and defending against all enemies both foreign and domestic.

"Domestic enemies" in their case means those politicians and bureaucrats who have betrayed them and reduced their status to that of mercenaries acting at the behest of foreign governments that aren't even paying for their services.

Domestic enemies means treasonous British Territorial corporations and their managers pretending to be Governors of our States of the Union.

Domestic enemies means all denizens of the District of Columbia who have colluded and conspired against the people and the lawful government of this country --- while extracting their paychecks and budgets illegally and unlawfully from our pockets --- during an illegal mercenary occupation of our country that is also their fault.

The only way out is to make a clean breast of it, and ask for amnesty. No more funny business, no more status quo, and no more self-interested promotion of solutions that only perpetuate continuation of the same old evils and scams.
