

Fear Is Always The Enemy

By Anna Von Reitz

When you fear something you empower it.

Simple as that.

So becoming fearless is a necessary part of being a spiritual warrior.

A giant statue — an idol — of the Babylonian goddess known as The Great Abomination stands disguised as the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor. That certainly counts as “standing where it should not be.”

The Cedars and Sycamores prophecy came true at the rededication of the World Trade Centers site.

The Great Tribulation meaning the 160 years that modern day “Rome” siphoned off the wealth of the world as “tribute” has come and gone.

Gog and Magog, two brothers, are fighting in the Ukraine, but soon they will pivot and the fight will focus on the Middle East.

The Ten Kings just revealed themselves — they are the ones that shut their embassies in Turkey just before the “earthquake”.

The Euphrates River is drying up.

The Fukushima disaster and pollution and increased underwater earthquake activity has killed a third of the ocean life already

At least a third of mankind is dying as we speak, a result of the phony “Covid” shots.

The currency situation looks like it will devolve into famine even without a bunch of crazy “government” bureaucrats burning down meat processing plants and infecting chicken farms with bioweapons, torching oil refineries, and causing earthquakes and floods and droughts, and dropping incendiary metallic salts and heavy metal waste on the earth and water.

And as if there was any doubt, we now know exactly how and when the Roman Church fell from grace and was seduced into profiting from lies in the jurisdiction of the sea.

No widow, she, for she never had a husband.

Any questions? For those who have been watching, the Biblical narrative has been playing out 1,2,3....

Someone is going to great lengths over a long period of time and has spent unimaginable amounts of money to make sure this Do It Yourself “fulfillment” comes true. It’s the biggest build up and stage production ever.

But for those of us who can see, it’s all falling flat as a Vaudeville act that really isn’t funny.

Yeshuah has nothing to do with any of this.

So how can you thread your way through the End Time maze?

Don’t accept the Mark of the Beast — meaning the Belgian estate asset tracking system, which has the acronym of B.E.A.S.T. And that means don’t take the Covid shot.

In addition, open up your ears so that you will recognize the true Yeshuah when you hear him—. Because why? Remember how we recognize our Master from among all the others who might pretend and produce signs and wonders?

And the correct answer is....

By his voice.

You will know his voice as a sheep knows it’s shepherd.

Wait for him. And stay awake.
