

A Footnote About Evil

By Anna Von Reitz

This is something practical to know and share concerning the "coagulation and separation" process we are presently facing (yes, just like the steps of alchemy).

In the end, the Evil Ones go mad. Stark raving bonkers. They salivate like dogs and defecate as they walk. They smell bad. They leer and talk in riddles and grunts. The image of the Zombie Apocalypse is not far off. They will be violently demented before they die. They know this. They have tried to guarantee the same end for all of us.

The point is, they will no longer be hard to identify.

They won't be able to hide any longer.

Their true nature will be revealed.

Keep a close camera eye on Benjamin Netanyahu. You will notice his ears deforming, looking more like Mr. Spock ears, distorted, thin on the edges. His skin will get blotchy. His hand movements will get more animated — like Adolph Hitler.

He is already at the stage where the madness of evil becomes visible.

So the good news is that we will see them for what they are. The bad news is that some of them will be friends and family.
