

For Eric Jon Phelps

From Anna Von Reitz

I must say you have an enviable and unusual grasp of history, but in terms of this country and its situation you need to go all the way back to the Civil War and the never-completed Reconstruction. The Emergency Banking Act in 1934 is a Territorial United States fraud scheme, but the basis of the fraud--what allowed it in the first place --was the unfinished business of the Civil War.

As for the Holy Roman Empire claws sunk into our government, I also suggest you research the history of the Post Office and in particular, the history of "the United States Company" which morphed into "the United States, Inc."
