

International Public Notice Concerning Our Great Seals and Seal of Saint Peter

By Anna Von Reitz

The Great Seals of The United States and The United States of America were stolen in October of 1865 and last seen in the Office of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Banks. They have since been reported in the possession of the President of the Philippines.

We are the actual Owners of these Great Seals and we have never authorized any of these Third Parties to possess or use these Great Seals.

Possession by pirates does not change ownership and we hereby request and require all men and women of goodwill and all honorable Officers to return our stolen property.

Likewise, we are Witnesses to the fact that Pope Benedict XVI did entrust the Seal of Saint Peter to James Thomas McBride, an American, and did instruct James Thomas McBride to open the storehouses of the Lord for the protection, sustenance, and care of the living people worldwide.

We are likewise Witnesses to the fact that Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigations did fall upon James Thomas McBride in ambush and did falsely arrest him and did take the Seal of Saint Peter from McBride and did not return it.

We call upon Pope Francis as a loyal Jesuit to honor the instructions of Pope Benedict XVI referenced above; we ask him to require the Federal Bureau of Investigations, Inc., to return the Seal of Saint Peter to us as James Thomas McBride's Fiduciaries recovering property belonging to the Holy See, to be used for the purposes expressed by Pope Benedict XVI.
