

Progress Against the Seals of Houska and Delphi

By Anna Von Reitz

For those following the Way, the Great Seal of the Pit is weakening by the hour, shivering and trembling under the strength of your onslaught! Well done, people! Keep it up!

The Great Seal at Delphi was so old and fragile, like the Great Palatine Seal, it is already gone!

For those just entering upon this work -- what is at stake?

The release of the free flow of energy along the longitudinal meridians and ley lines of the Earth from Bosnia and Croatia in the West to the Levant in the East -- a huge swath of land taking in Finland and Karelia, Estonia, Latvia, the eastern Baltic Sea Coast, the entirety of Hungary and Poland, the Slovakian nations, Eastern Germany/ Prussia, all of Bulgaria and the Ukraine, Greece, Turkey, western Russia, Crete, North Africa. East Africa, the west side of the Persian Gulf, Western India, Saudi Arabia....Yemen, Egypt, Ethiopia, Somalia.....

This is a huge and heavily populated section of the Earth that has been harmed since ancient times by these two Seals gumming up the works.

The health, wealth, and well-being of this entire section of the Earth has been truncated by the existence of these two seals --- gigantic ancient energy dams that trap and redirect energy in unnatural ways.

This is the largest focused effort to remove these Seals since they were put in place thousands of years ago.

By your Will and action, the energy Seals that have stifled development and peace and health for thousands of years throughout this whole portion of the Earth will be dissolved.

The Pit will be unable to drain away the vitality of life and the Delphi Seal will no longer be able to convert the life force into perversions, superstitions, addictions, and fear.

That is what is at stake. The end of these distortions.

Banishing these ancient evils of drug use, poisons and superstitions, pollution, nightmares, and blood sacrifices, and removing these energy seals that dam up and prevent the free flow of life-giving energy and joy --- this is the work we have in our vision tonight.

Let your mind travel over the lands that have been laid waste and made miserable, impoverished, turned to desert, starved, and war-torn generation after generation. In your mind, see them restored to glory and life.

See the peace of the True God made manifest, so that there is no more disease or want or crying any more. Hold this vision with the whole strength of your mind and heart and seal it in your soul.

Know that the good that you would do, is immediately manifest in the energetic realm.

It is our will to blow these ancient obstructions away, seal these drains, and alter every aspect of life on Earth for the better.

The Pit Seal is turned on its side and hurled deep into the Earth; it is forever entombed, harmless, covered over by slabs of granite infused with golden light, sealed over and melting away from age to age until no trace or memory of it remains.

The periphery around the Great Seal of Delphi is already dissolved as if it never was; like the Great Palatine Seal in Rome, it was so ancient it was already decayed, ready to dissolve away. All it needed was a good solid push.

The nasty reek of menstrual blood is gone from that place. The cloying incense of the snake and the nightmares of its poisonous delusions are washing away; even its memory in time and space is forced to give way.

The morning sun appears, bright and clean, shining over the peaceful graves of the slain who will not rise again. They fell so long ago that nobody remembers them or even their time on Earth anymore.

Still, the sadness of Delphi is like an echo. We lift this echo of sadness up, letting the pale dust of the Great Snake blow away in the rising wind; we watch it float far out over the blue Aegean, knowing that the snake is gone and will not come again.

We finish pulling the energy out of the temple complex itself just as I mark the last remnants of the Morning Star on the horizon, its light glimmering faintly and then going out, vanishing into the greater light of day.

We are standing on a huge grave filled with malevolent darkness, in the presence of a creature that is dead, and yet alive in some other space and time.

I question what it is doing here and I hear it say, "I wait."

This is something that should never have been on Earth at all, a monster animated and fed by the spirit of fear itself. It has no natural place here, but cannot be removed with the tools of conscious thought.

For this, we have to go deeper and find its source--- and block the projection's energy where it enters the Earth. It will require more time and skill to remove it, but we will get it done.

This second phenomenon is not a Seal; the Seal at Delphi has already been overcome.

We are restoring the flow of energy to the Earth just as we restore the power of our own governance; as we do, the power of life and love returns to us all.
