

International Public Notice: Identity Theft Via Substitution (Part 3)

By Anna Von Reitz

Notice to Principals is Notice to Agents; Notice to Agents is Notice to Principals

It may seem like there couldn't possibly be more to this stinking onion, but there is, and if possible, it's even worse and more demoralizing, because it involves a religious institution famous for preserving and preaching the Gospel: the Roman Catholic Church.

What we have described thus far is the creation of a Public Trust Interest in private property by a foreign government -- an Ownership Interest which is used to pillage, plunder, coerce, and defraud the actual owner under color of law.

That is bad enough.

What we have to deal with next in reference to the Roman Catholic Church is the creation of a Private Trust Interest in private American property by a foreign government known as Vatican City.

In some ways, it is much the same spiel.

The British Territorial United States Government claims a public interest in "abandoned" American Estate property using the mechanism of undisclosed and unconscionable registration of American babies as chattel assets.

The Vatican City operatives claim a private trust interest in the estates of purportedly dead American babies that they consistently describe as stillborn fraternal twins.

It turns out that the "stillborn fraternal twin" amounts to the placenta and Afterbirth material, and that this whole "tradition" goes back to the time of St. Thomas Aquinas, when people were superstitious and didn't know or understand what all this extra material was.

This "twin" described by Pope Boniface VIII as a "human creature" always arrived with a baby. It started out with a heartbeat and shortly after delivery, it died. So they attached whatever name the parents gave to this "baby" and gave it a Baptism while the heartbeat was still present (if possible) and then almost immediately after, performed Last Rites.

And they set up an infant decedent estate in the name of the "lost" fraternal twin, which also happened to be the name of the surviving twin brother.

Sound familiar?

The government charlatans just adapted their version of the Roman Catholic playbook, which the church had been using for several hundred years.

This accounts for the incredible alacrity with which the placenta and Afterbirth material was always removed and shuttled away from the Mother in Catholic hospitals, such that most women never even saw the placenta -- at least that's how it started out.

Now, we know what a placenta is and what the Afterbirth materials are, so there is really no excuse to carry this tradition on; the most recent testimony and evidence suggests that this stopped being the practice in the 1970's in this country.

Instead, even worse things happened. They seized upon the DNA of the "stillborn fraternal twin" that has the same name as the surviving brother or sister, started selling the placenta, umbilical cord, and other Afterbirth material for scientific research, stem cell culture, food "additives", and even dog food.

Remember the Municipal CORPORATIONS named after the U.S. Citizens ---which were named after the American babies? The slaves?

All those slaves represented as Municipal CORPORATIONS were bonded at "birth" by the Roman Pontiff, who issued a gold-backed bond on the estimated lifetime value of the "child's" labor which was securitized as an asset backing these performance bonds.

These CORPORATIONS representing slaves were created by the DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE and then permanently domiciled in Puerto Rico, where the British Commonwealth of Puerto Rico still provided access to the Spanish Law of the Inquisition.

The Income Tax started out in the early 1100's as a special collection offering of the Roman Catholic Church called "Peter's Pence". It was used to pay the cost of the Crusades. It was collected once a year on April 15th by members of the Dominican Order --- the Inquisition, under the Spanish Law of the Inquisition.

That's why they domiciled all these CORPORATIONS named after U.S. Citizens who were named after American babies, in Puerto Rico, so they could continue to access the Spanish Law of the Inquisition.

This is the mechanism underlying the Federal Income Tax, which started in this country as a kickback tax imposed on the slaves for the privilege of Federal Employment.

The Roman Pontiff wanted his fair share of the value of his slave's labor, and the British Territorial Government running Puerto Rico wanted it's share, so to collect this they had two Federal Agencies, the IRS and the Internal Revenue Service, both, deliberately misaddressing the American victims of this identity theft, impersonation, and substitution fraud scheme.

To this day, Internal Revenue Service billing statements are sent to clueless Americans via the Royal Mail Service, and IRS billing statements are sent via the USPS -- and all of this is deliberately misaddressed to us as U.S. Citizens or US CITIZENS known to be citizens of the United States under the Diversity of Citizenship Clause -- who just happen to have the same -- or what appears to be the same-- name as we do.

These schemes run in tandem.

If you don't answer the correspondence from the IRS, they'll send you a bill from the Internal Revenue Service, and once again, all of this is based on the fraudulent securitization of an asset -- your labor -- which belongs to you, but which has been secretly "attributed" as belonging to the estate of your "dead" brother or sister.

No matter which agency, IRS or Internal Revenue Service, makes the score, the split is the same: 60% to the Vatican, 40% to the British Monarch.

It's the same thing with the Birth Certificate Fraud and the Baptismal Certificate Fraud (which claims to own, buy, and sell your soul as an asset pledged to the Roman Catholic Church) -- a 60:40 split.

These "clearinghouse certificates" are issued each time another registration and assignment of ownership interest and change of jurisdiction occurs, and they are given to your parents like a "coat check" to legalize what the Vermin have done.

As Americans are never given any disclosure about any of this, they think the "Birth Certificate" is just a harmless public record of the event of a baby being born. They don't know that it represents a purloined interest in their assets and the assumption of debts related to foreign citizenship obligations and pledges that were made "in their names" by Third Parties or contracts owed by foreign Legal Fiction Entities that have been named after them for purposes of impersonation.

All these are "private contracts" with Legal Fiction Entities named after you, Legal Fictions which are used to impersonate you without your knowledge or consent.

You never knew about the U.S. Citizen named after you, because that was a totally unconscionable contract, so, you never knew about "his" ESTATE contracts with the Roman Pontiff, either.

The whole scheme was designed as a black box within a black box, with deliberate misidentification and impersonation at the heart of it.

At every step, Joe Average American has been nailed down to suffer and slave for the obligations of all these foreign "citizens" named after him, all Legal Fictions that don't even exist.

It's a completely evil and vacuous system built of lies, paper, and hot air, yet this "System" has continued to exist behind the scenes ever since the First Crusades, when Roman Catholics lost their minds and actually believed that "Killing for Jesus" made sense.

So expert and pernicious are these identity thieves and "human" traffickers, so slickly efficient are their bill collectors, they put on a show in courtrooms to make it look like all this is "official" and yet, they are operating under color of law and conditions of deceit and the characters they address aren't real.

It is all designed purely and simply to defraud the living people, to purloin or outright steal their assets and their credit for the benefit and use of Third Parties. These are, whether we like it or not, the practices of organized crime syndicates.

And once again, the BAR Attorneys are smack dab in the center of it, playing the games and committing the personage necessary to defraud and steal the assets and the credit belonging to the living people.

Now that this has become common knowledge, the Corporate Vermin responsible have tried one more desperate, vile, criminal gambit.

First, they "redefined" us as British Territorial U.S. Citizens, next they "redefined" the U.S. Citizens as Roman Catholic-owned Municipal CORPORATIONS, and now, they have tried to redefine everyone who got a Covid 19 injection as Genetically Modified Organisms (GMOs) owned by DARPA under patent, and licensed to Microsoft, Inc.

We don't need to tell you what we think, because we already published and issued the first new Public Law in America in over a hundred years. Our States, the actual unincorporated and sovereign States of the Union, outlawed all such claims and patents, by Roll Call Vote of our State Assemblies.

We, individually and collectively, are owed all right, title, and interest in our names and our natural estates, all vested and physical interest in our assets, and we hold the unique survivorship interest in our named estates and country, our Union States and our States of the Union, our public and private property and assets of all kinds, including but not limited to our credit.

Our courts hold superior concurrent General Jurisdiction over all Americans and all American assets, so it's time for our foreign public employees to wake up and drop the false patent claims, the false registrations and all the rest of it.

We are not the Enemy; we are their employers. We are the source of their job security, their pensions, their homes and everything they own. We are the source of the credit they use in place of money. We are and we own the assets that they depend upon.

These are circumstances with which we must contend and the claims we must advance in every jurisdiction and at every level, until we regain recoupment and restitution for everyone who has been harmed by these fraud schemes and usurpations by foreign corporations masquerading as our government and acting in their private interest under color of law.

We, the living people, are the actual owners of the gold, silver, land, cash, and corporate assets held in the Global Collateral Accounts; we are also the source and owners of the labor asset resources, patents, trademarks, copyrights, performances and intellectual assets.

We are done with evil. We are done with being bullied and misrepresented by our public employees. And we are definitely done with the disservice of the Maritime Commercial Banks -- especially when we own the superior claim on everything they pretend to own.
