

The Illuminati Agenda -- Peace Through Death and Homogeneity

By Anna Von Reitz

Here are the Planks of the Public Illuminati Agenda:

Imagine there's no heaven, it's easy if you try..... no hell below us above us only sky..... Destruction of religion, Plank One.

Imagine all the people living for today... No need for accountability for past errors, no concern for the future, either. No conscience. Total selfishness. Plank Two.

Imagine there's no country, it isn't hard to do.... No homeland, no unique cultures, just one homogenous blob.... No nation-states, no monarchies, just one monolithic, all-controlling police surveillance state. No private or even national ownership of anything. No security for anyone, ever. Plank Three.

Nothing to kill or die for and no religion too Also nothing much to live for, and repeat Plank One --- kill all religions.

Imagine all the people living life in peace, you, you may say I'm a dreamer but I'm not the only one---- i hope someday that you'll join us and the world will live as one!

Let me repeat, the Illuminati's Public Goals are simple and were stated by John Lennon many years ago. When he woke up and saw their actual agenda, he told them to go to Hell. And they killed him.

The Illuminati's Public Agenda is meant to sound all nice and peaceful and perhaps even practical.

Religious wars are nasty and based on beliefs which can never be proven, so they are senseless, too. Everyone wants to get rid of Jihad-like efforts, whether by Muslims or Southern Baptists. It's easy to blame religion for a lot of the bad things that have happened, not so easy to discern the good things that religion has yielded. It makes an easy target.

When you infiltrate churches and mosques and synagogues with madmen acting as criminals and pariahs and purposefully discredit religions it's even easier to target them.

When you infiltrate governments and operate them as for-profit corporations engaged in "war" against their own populations, it's easy to discredit them, too. The only reason to have a government is to protect life and property. Do you need a government that does the opposite?

So that explains why the Illuminati have manipulated the governments to bring about their own demise, by making governments into crime syndicates, nobody has any use for them. They are not only dispensable, they are a detriment. Good riddance to bad rubbish that failed their trust and duty to their Employers.

The destruction of private property is a sore point with most people, so they soft-pedal that one, but it is the self-evident result of not having any countries, religions, or governments --- aside from the one monolithic police state.

What was it Klaus the Schwab said? You won't own anything, and you'll be happy?

That's because they plan to drug us into soporific zombie-like conditions with the mental functions of the mildly retarded. We'd be happy in the same sense that cows are happy, at least until some meritorious bureaucrat decided that it was time to kill us and grind us up for chicken feed.

The private agenda of the Illuminati is much darker and more insane than their Public Agenda which, at least superficially, has some potentially attractive elements. The private agenda includes setting up their Precious Selves to rule as gods.

It also includes giving themselves god-like powers to experiment with and torture and terrify the rest of us for laughs.

When questioned about their plan to kill 90% of the other people on the planet in order to save the environment, they were asked to demonstrate their sincerity in their beliefs by volunteering to be the first to die.

The hypocrites promptly started talking about giving everyone a basic income and enough pot to stay permanently stoned.
