

International Public Notice: Impersonation Attempts Underway

By Anna Von Reitz

As a great deal of the crimes committed have involved impersonation on paper, it should not surprise us that actual impersonation is now taking place, with individual actors pretending to be our Fiduciary, Anna Maria Riezinger, our Head of State, our Coordinators, and so on.

Be sure that you are dealing with the actual man or woman and not an actor merely claiming to be someone.

There are also other kinds of "mischief" scams being played. This is an example of such a scam email which was recently sent out under the pretense of coming from one of our Coordinators:

Quote this obvious SCAM message:

Please I would like to ask you for a favor, I wanted to make a payment transfer amount of $4,200 to a relative of mine who is suffering from a serious illness so as to help proceed with surgery but my bank informed me that my bank account is currently under audit due to a loan I applied for so this development has made me unable to make any transfers at the moment. I am writing to know if you can help me make this transfer on my behalf, it is urgent. I will make sure to refund the amount to you once the audit on my bank account is done.

Looking forward to seeing your reply to know if you can help so that I can send you the bank details for the transfer. I will appreciate your effort in trying to help.

Teri never sent and will never send any message like this. Neither will our Fiduciaries or anyone else associated with our organizations.

Everyone is advised to check and double-check all suspicious activities including phony emails and applications, inaccurate credit reports, fictitious title claims, weird inexplicable mail, and associated attempted criminal fraud activities.

Unfortunately, this is becoming more common and more sophisticated as cartels are invading this country and criminal activity is increasing.

Forewarned is forearmed.

Our experts will be tracking these scam artists with due diligence, but we must all do our part and report suspicious activities and be proactive in protecting ourselves, our identity, and our property.
