

International Public Notice: In Case Anyone Missed the Point

By Anna Von Reitz

Our bodies are well-equipped to digest our food, but when food, or any foreign protein, gets directly injected into our blood, it triggers an allergic reaction known as a "cytokine storm" and our body's immune system goes into hyperdrive trying to surround and neutralize the foreign substance.

Everyone has heard by now that the mRNA injected in the Covid shot is coded to make your cells produce a foreign "spike protein" that is similar to snake venom. This foreign spike protein is then created by your own cells, the same way that Genetically Modified corn and soybean cells produce their own pesticides --- that you then ingest.

No matter where we look, genetic engineering is being used for bad purposes, similar to the way that "USAID" was being used to send $40 million per week to the Taliban. Genetic engineering, like USAID, could be a good thing, but instead, it has been turned to bad purposes.

You can see this same dynamic in every sphere of activity in the world. We start out with a good intention, or a worthy discovery, but before you know it, this is "converted" so that evil comes from what could otherwise be good.

Genetic engineering could be used to correct defects and save lives. It could be used to stimulate beneficial processes in the body by changing the epigenetic factors. It could cure diseases. It could improve the quality of life and extend it.

Instead, it has been used to poison us at the cellular level, and induce a permanent state of "war" within our biology, as our immune systems must fight the self-produced foreign spike protein continually until the day we die.

It's like a food allergy we cannot avoid.

Over time, our immune system simply wears out. And, just like with AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) when our immune system does wear out, we become easy prey for any opportunistic infection.

We then die from a hundred different causes, but the underlying cause is that our immune system has been worn out and severely compromised by the constant need to detect and disassemble foreign self-produced proteins in our bloodstreams.

This has been done to us by our own out-of-control whackjob government. The same government that has been sending the Taliban $40 million dollars a week, so that we could spend more money fighting them.

This new plague called "Vaccine Induced Autoimmune Deficiency" or "VAIDS" has been unleashed on us by Dr. Anthony Fauci, whose job was to cure AIDS, not spread it throughout the world population.

It's up to us to organize and to control the government from now on and also up to us to punish Dr. Fauci and the many criminals at DOD and DARPA and NIH and CDC and FDA whose greed and stupidity have done this to us, even as we seek the means to correct this grotesque and evil misuse of genetic engineering.

Here is a good re-post concerning the way that vaccines and any other means of introducing foreign RNA or DNA or foreign protein into our blood wrecks havoc on our immune systems:

The pollution of our genome to create this immune system disaster is easily the worst crime in human history and unless we develop means to counteract it, will result in more death and disability and disease than any war.

Anthony Fauci, Bill Gates, and all those who have knowingly created this slow genocide and who have knowingly polluted the human genome, need to be punished with severe prejudice and with no apologies. To the extent possible, even their DNA needs to be expunged.

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation needs to be shut down as an institution engaged in criminal activities and all their endowments should be used to help the victims -- not to recoup "government" debt. Ditto the Cecil Rhodes endowments, Wellcome Trust endowments, and Pirbright Institute endowments.

These organizations have pushed such harmful ideas as Eugenics and Overpopulation Theories with disastrous results. It's time we located the source of this evil and removed it and all funding for it on a permanent basis.

All the money that has been wasted on "Foreign Aid" and recycled into political coffers and causes needs to be recouped and repaid by those responsible --- and that means the foreign corporations that have been "serving as" subcontractors to our actual government.

They are responsible for all of this and need to be made accountable for it, too.

We, the living people, would have been better off if we had had no government at all, anywhere on Earth.

They failed their most sacred duty and only purpose -- to protect the people and their property.

Don't forget that the European franchises of this behemoth are just as misguided, mismanaged, and evil in their consequences.

Mr. Trump's Administration is pursuing the settlement of the Municipal Government bankruptcy, and in the process, will discover the hidden slush and payola funds, and also the pathways by which all this graft is distributed.

Never forget the lessons learned.

When we see a government brave enough to face the truth about the current health crisis, a government which takes effective action to heal those harmed, and which will strive to prevent anything like this from happening again, we will celebrate.

Until then, we won't forget what was done and we will not cease to focus our attention on the pandemic crime and the ongoing slaughter that is the result.
