

International Public Note: Ireland and Israel

By Anna Von Reitz

Ireland has roughly four times the land mass and half the population of Israel, but neither the country of Ireland nor the "state of" Israel is large by any standard.

Both populations are quite homogenous, sharing basic cultural, language, and religious ties going back to prehistoric times.

In recent months, these nations have gone toe-to-toe.

When Israel invaded southern Lebanon, Irish members of United Nations Peacekeeping Forces did their duty and refused to stand down.

Finding that their aggression was not being supported, Israel accused Ireland of being "pro-Palestinian" and "anti-Israel" and closed their embassy in Dublin, an action most usually taken when two countries are going to war.

Fed up with Israeli violence and hypocrisy, Ireland turned the former embassy into a museum documenting the history of Palestine.

This is seen, by the Israelis, as proof of more pro-Palestinian bias on the part of Ireland --- and not a well-deserved kick in the pants.

Spain, Norway, and Ireland have all said that they are willing to recognize a Palestinian homeland and would welcome an end to Israeli-spawned violence and apartheid in the region.

This seems simple enough, and the words of Simon Harris, the Irish Prime Minister are clear: "Ireland is pro-peace, pro-human rights, and pro-international law."

Israel, on the other hand, is apparently immune to any consideration of peace, human rights, or international law.

This tiny country and its ten million residents have never been at peace with their neighbors, nor with themselves. Human rights is an unfamiliar concept, and international law, we are told, has no meaning to the Israeli Government.

This is clearly evidenced by the dozens of times Israel has ignored United Nations sanctions and pleas for peace --- and is underscored by the fact that they are doing it again:

The only way that Israel continues this reckless Bully Boy behavior toward its neighbors is via the support of Great Britain, the US, Inc., and Germany, who all sell arms and military consulting contracts to Israel.

But wait, how is this possible?

The "US, Inc." has given $280 billion in support to Israel since 1948, part of which Israel recycles as payola to "US, Inc." politicians:

There are lots of additional members of Congress and especially the Senate who have received half a million each.

A few million spread around by AIPAC over the years continues to net billions funded by the US, Inc.

This largesse amounts to $53,028 given to Israel in grants, not counting "direct aid", per every man, woman, and child. And then, the US, Inc. pays their defense bills, too.

How they do this is very interesting and educational:

- (1) Israel is given huge amounts of money by the US, Inc., as grants and aid;
- (2) Israel funnels a portion of this back through the AIPAC lobby to dozens of leading members of the House and Senate, each in receipt of $500,000 to $1M in payola;
- (3) Israel buys arms and technical military support with the grants and aid, which the US, Inc., Germany, and Britain sell to them.

Israel is basically laundering the money for the US, Inc. and getting its own defense costs paid for in the bargain. All this is at the expense of average Americans, especially the middle class.

Quite apart from the gross conflict of interest these prohibited "emoluments" from a foreign government cause in the Congress, this double-sided arrangement, a constructive fraud, funnels public money issued as grants and aid to Israel directly back into the pockets of war mongering defense contractors and the crooked politicians voting on these "aid" packages.

There's no aid to Israeli school children, hospitals, or widows getting through; nothing for the maimed and disabled Israeli soldiers. This is why despite $280 billion in "aid" to Israel, you see these horrible ads on TV asking you to adopt penniless Holocaust Survivors.

God knows that what passes for a government in Israel isn't doing jack-diddly for them.

In the end, this is not about Israel at all, except for a few crooked collaborators at the very top. They are the ones that gin up the wars and incursions and acts of aggression, that create the demand for more armaments and more military technical support, and so, drives the hamster wheel of war profiteering that benefits the defense contractors and politicians, and their feckless local minions like Netanyahu.

It surely does not benefit the hapless American, German, and British taxpayers, who are dumbed down and clueless and think that Israel is the victim in all this, simply because they have been lied to.

It does not benefit the Israelis who get chewed up by all this and told that they owe a humongous war debt --- that doesn't exist --- and who bow down and struggle onward, believing that that's why Netanyahu's government has to tax them into oblivion.

None of this is benefiting the Palestinians, who have provided the necessary "Enemy" for Israel and its benefactors, in order to promote this self-generating and evil narrative which isn't about Israel versus the Palestinians.

It's about spending, and war debt, and new wars to pay for more war debt and more spending and more war debt.

It is a hamster-wheel that embezzles public money straight into the pockets of crooked politicians in this country and into the coffers of defense contractors worldwide---- who then engender wars to stimulate more demand for their "product".

It is exactly akin to research institutions and hospitals and pharmaceutical corporations finding new and better ways to make everyone sick, as a means of bolstering their own bottom lines.

Raise your hands. Does anyone --- aside from these criminals --- want another devastating war? Another genocide? More False Claims and False Flags?

Americans --- do you want your money spent this way? Do you want money that is ostensibly allocated for the relief of widows, the disabled, and orphaned children in Israel to be siphoned off by DARPA and Raytheon and Black Rock?

The Israeli government isn't acting like a government. It isn't really protecting Israeli people nor is it protecting their assets. It's acting instead as a criminal commercial mercenary corporation, the State of Israel, Inc., headquartered in Kensington Palace.

With help from their Hidden Hand buddies at the Vatican, laundered through the Eastern Orthodox brand of Catholic Church in Constantinople, bolstered by a million-man Turkish Army hired as mercenaries to invade Syria, "the State of Israel, Inc." franchise is poised to destroy and take over nearly everything in the Middle East, including the Eastern Mediterranean Oil Basin.

They will take their vengeance against Egypt by building a new rival canal system on the opposite side of the Sinai Peninsula. Saudi Arabia will take its share of the loot and reinvest in its own people and its own country. The ancient Persian citadel of Iran is slated for complete demolition in less than 45 days, and we are told, there is nothing we can do to stop it.

We can pray. We can raise our voices. We can expose the rot.

As for the Palestinian people to whom the Gaza strip belongs?

Clearly, they will cease to exist for the convenience and unjust enrichment of these criminals, most of whom aren't even Israelis, or Palestinians, either one.

No doubt this is something that the Irish Government can sense, even if it doesn't spend its limited resources on a lot of advanced analytics.

They can recognize the bootheels of Rome on British feet, because they have suffered under the same scourge for a thousand years.

We say that the rank and file people of Ireland and of Israel are friends, with the same basic needs common to people everywhere, including America, and Gaza and Lebanon and Syria.

We say that it is only the distorted, corrupt, vicious foreign-owned corporation posing as Israel's government, that makes it seem any other way.

We say that Netanyahu is a pawn, a soldier taking orders as a mercenary captain in an illegal commercial "war". We say that the British Crown and the Royals are in it up to their eyebrows, as usual.

We say that it is past time for this endless war profiteering and corporate malfeasance and meddling in everyone else's business to stop.

Let everyone who has a brain and a conscience left in this world join with Ireland in support of peace, human rights, and international law.

Let everyone recognize that despite the exotic location, Britain and Rome are together at the bottom of the dogpile --- again, and trying to get away with their illegal acts of genocide and corporate aggression "in the name of" Israel, which is being used like a dirty sock puppet under demonic possession.

Ireland and Algeria, two small nations --- have stood tall while the rest of the world fiddled and sniveled and hedged their bets. They have spoken for our conscience.

We don't believe that either of these countries have acted as Israel's enemies. They have acted as friends of humanity instead, a distinction that Simon Harris made with clarity and grace.

As for the Palestinian Museum in the former Israeli Embassy, the preservation of the record is necessary wherever it may stand. Both the Israeli people and the Palestinian people are the victims in all of this -- together with the Americans, Brits, and Germans who are being unwittingly tapped by crooked politicians and crooked corporate executives to pay for these abuses.

This is our basic criminal information report submitted under our hand for investigation and prosecution by all and any public law enforcement and peacekeeping forces worldwide.

To the best of our knowledge and belief, this is a gross commercial crime in progress, not politics, not a matter of religion or ethnicity.

To the best of our knowledge and belief, the current blitzkrieg that has been unleashed in the Middle East has nothing to do with the people who live there, but is entirely the fault of foreign corporations and foreign mercenary forces with attachments to the British Crown and Roman Municipal governments.

On Christmas Eve, when all should be quiet and at peace, we are again facing the spectre of war and genocide and shameless war profiteering in the Middle East.

It's time for the banks and corporations that have engendered this entire circumstance to go down to the dusty death that they have well-deserved, and for people of goodwill from whatever culture or religion, to join together and make it so.

The genocides now occurring in Gaza, Syria, and Lebanon are commercial and social crimes of a very serious nature.

We, the American Government, stand with Ireland and Algeria and the actual people of Israel, too. We make the stand for the living people and against the corporations in this matter.

We wish for these guilty corporations to be dissolved and their assets distributed for the benefit of their victims. We wish for the guilty Boards of Directors and CEO's to be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the Public Law.
