

The IRS / BATF Connection

By Anna Von Reitz

Apparently some people are misunderstanding what I said the other night about the IRS and the BATF so I am putting it down in writing and explaining it.

The IRS has no capacity of its own to enforce anything.

All power of distraint related to the IRS is vested in the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms.

See: 27 CFR, Chapter 1, Subchapter F, Part 70: all power of distraint enforcement of the IRS is connected to and through the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms.

This goes back to the original plan to finance the Federal Government from the regulation (taxation) of "interstate manufacture, sale, and transport" of alcohol, tobacco, and firearms.

This is how the Federal Government got into the "Sin Tax" business in the first place and this is the modern day connection back to it: BATF.

So, how, you may wonder, does the IRS figure into that?

By claiming that we are all federal citizens of one stripe or another engaged in some activity related to the "interstate manufacture, sale, and transport" of alcohol, tobacco, and firearms.

You will remember that years ago I obtained "MY" IRS Masterfile and the separate code book needed --- literally--- to decode it.

I learned to my amazement that "ANNA MARIA RIEZINGER" --- the Municipal Doppelganger-- was engaged in managing a rum distillery in Barbados.

At the time I was simply flabbergasted and had my nose wrinkled up like a Venetian Blind. The whole concept was so completely off-the-scale that I made jokes about it every time I mixed a Hot Buttered Rum --- but there was a method to their well-hidden madness.

They were building a completely fictitious and vicious dossier connecting my name -- or what appeared to normal people to be my name -- to activities that are firmly under the thumb and forefinger of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms.

Likewise, and at the same time, I discovered that according to the IRS, my husband, James, was a big time gun runner in South America, right up there with Ollie North and the Contras.

Same schtick. Setting him up and mischaracterizing him as a Municipal Corporation franchisee engaged in the interstate (which means "international") sale and transport of what? Firearms. And firearms are under the control of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms --- BATF, again.

So all this Shinola on the part of the IRS is self-evidently created out of thin air and compiled as a False Dossier (where have we seen that before?) that they present to BATF Officials to justify action by the BATF in behalf of the IRS.

How much you want to bet that all those poor sods at Waco were similarly misrepresented as drug lords and kingpins and dangerous mercenary characters --- probably in possession of weapons of mass destruction? And how much would you like to bet that the "proof" of this was supplied to Janet Reno and the BATF in the form of IRS Master Files?

This has been going on since the 1930's, folks.

No doubt they have you and your family members all framed up, too.

The IRS "Agents" have all been working for a private trust fund in Puerto Rico run by members of the Dominican Order (not the much-maligned Jesuits) under the Spanish Law of the Inquisition collecting Church Tithes called "Peter's Pence"---purportedly in the form of "gift and estate taxes".

Though, to be sure, most IRS Agents don't know that, and will stare at you like you are a Talking Horse and walk away shaking their heads if you tell them that up front. Only their boss's boss's boss's boss's Boss will catch the drift, and his reaction will be to look worried and jog-trot away at the earliest opportunity, never to be seen or heard from again.

I can guarantee this from direct experience.

Can you imagine all the IRS Officials pooping green goo as they read this? Knowing that their "cover" is blown and their "system" dissected? Can you hear the Power Shredders at work in Washington, DC, as they struggle to destroy the evidence and "overwrite" the digital Master Files and try to change the meanings of their Master File code books?

LMAO.

But the evidence is already distributed world wide and their migration to the Mariana Islands where they planned to continue their predatory activities on us ---plus two billion innocent Chinese people--- has been well-noted and publicized.

I am just kicking back at the end of a long day, sharing reasons why the "IRS" in its present form is not long for this world, and why the hunters are now the hunted.

All IRS-generated Notices of Tax Lien and Notices of Tax Levy are unenforceable and do not constitute Notice, as the IRS has no powers of distraint.

Actual Legal Notice must be posted and addressed to you by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms --- and all of you who have received such phony "Notices" of liens and levies from the IRS have firm grounds to go after them and their officers and agents, plus the recording offices and banks and courts that have allowed them to use these phony "Notices" as part of any legal process.

And when and if they pick their cajones up off the floor and address you again via the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms issuing a Notice of Lien or Notice of Levy or any confiscation or distraint Order of any kind, guess what?

They will have to prove that you were operating a foreign corporation offshore and that that corporation was engaged in the interstate manufacture, sale, or transport of alcohol, tobacco, and/or firearms ---- and they will have to produce their proof and all the records related to this corporation, its board members, its articles of incorporation, its address, and so much more.

Imagine all the fun we will have? Asking to see our passports and Airport CCTV of our trips going back and forth to "Barbados" (for example)? Discovering all the money going into foreign bank accounts held in our NAMES?

I get a warm, fuzzy feeling just thinking about it.

Sadly for that prospect, if history is any teacher, when they become really, truly convinced that their "system" has been breached --which is right about now-- they will fold their tents in the night and disappear.

And they won't be able to move to China.

So I would guess that they will try to put on a new face -- maybe a Sales Tax face or a Fair Tax face or some other new name and mask and get something ginned up again. It's our responsibility to stay sharp and not let them.

Government has its valid purposes, but government is like an ever-hungry dog. If you let it, it will glut itself-- on you, and your children. As its Master, we have to discipline it and teach it and keep it within its bounds. Whether it is a "good" government or a "bad" government, it is still a government, just like a dog is still a dog.
