

International Public Notice: A Short Reply to "King Charles III"

By Anna Von Reitz

An examination of history reveals that the Throne of England was acquired as a property interest by the German Hanoverian Dynasty shortly after the English Civil War.

There followed the ugly interlude known as The War of the Spanish Succession, with the result that German Queen Anne ascended the English Throne. She was the last Sovereign of any stripe to sit on it. That was over 300 years ago.

Queen Anne --- probably unknowingly --- vacated the land and soil of England and became a "Queen" in name only of a Company calling itself "Great Britain". Deft deceits, then, and now, have served to hide these facts from the public.

As an example, people have been deluded by the appearance of a "combined monarchy" --- "Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales" gives the impression that Elizabeth II was the Queen of all four countries, but in fact, this was a deceitfully named foreign office operated under this distinct, separate name.

She never actually sat on the Throne of England despite the complex and extravagant Coronation Ruse, as the records of the High Court admit. Nor did she sit on the actual Thrones of any of the other countries.

Good sense should tell anyone who thinks about it for five seconds, that a Sovereign Office is not divisible.

But we should hardly be surprised that Elizabeth II never sat on the land and soil of England as Queen: 250 years-worth of her Predecessors never did, either.

And neither is her Son, Charles III, sitting on the Throne of England.

So who has actually been operating the vacated land and soil jurisdictions of these countries for the past 300 years? In the case of England, the hereditary Lord High Steward has held the land and soil of England "for" the absent Kings and Queens.

Please notice that this was exactly the same playbook and narrative that was used by these criminals and con artists to usurp against the American Government. As with the English Civil War, an illegal mercenary conflict was disguised as an actual war. The English Civil War was supposed to be about religion and the American Civil War was purportedly about slavery, but neither one of these events were actual wars and they weren't about religion or slavery, either one.

They were about money and debt and Continental business interests, especially German banks.

So the tangled web takes another gyration.

Not only did the Windsors inherit a foreign office as the Pope's Overseer of Church lands (and were given a crown by him as such), but they had no natural tie to England or English soil at all, and were actually German Interlopers and not English Sovereigns at all.

So here we are, fast-forward 300 years, and here is "King" Charles III, signing a "Treaty" with the corporations that are members of the World Economic Forum and declaring that "national sovereignty must end".

<https://open.substack.com/pub/forbiddennews/p/king-charles-signs-wef-treaty-authorizing>

Spoken like a true Piker, considering that he couldn't sign an actual Treaty if his life depended on it (actual Treaties bind countries and nations, euphemistic "Sea Treaties" like this one bind business interests) and also as he never was a Sovereign of England, Scotland, Ireland or Wales.

From his standpoint as a Business Manager for the Pope and various German / Austria-Hungarian interests, he has no "national sovereignty" to offer and his opinion, like his signature, has no authority outside the narrow interests of certain criminal corporations and their business concerns.

In our opinion, the farcical nature of these Pretensions and attempts to delude and defraud the people of many nations of their own natural national sovereignty deserves a swift arrest not only of "King" Charles III, but the members of the Privy Council and Parliament that went along with and profited from this multi-generational fraud scheme.

When someone calls himself the "King of England" and presents himself as the "King of England", he'd better jolly well be the King of England, and not a German Knock Off or Undeclared Agent of the Holy Roman Empire.

Arrest them. Arrest them all.
