

Listen Up, Campers....

By Anna Von Reitz

"So often times it happens that we live our lives in chains, and never even know we hold the keys."---The Eagles, "Already Gone".

Here is a blazing example of the overall problem: we have the solution, but we don't use it.

Read this heart-rending post from Walter Burien, and in the spirit, Gene Valentine:

We have known about the CAFR System and the Slush Funding since the 1990's and yet, we've sat on our rumps as we have been trained to do, and done nothing, waited for someone else to do it for us, sniffed, thought, well, it's someone else's responsibility...

But it's not someone else's responsibility. It's not up to Dick Marple or Gene Valentine anymore.

It's up to us to get organized and mentally, spiritually, physically ---move the mountains.

Today, join me in asking the spirit of God to fill your minds and hearts and bodies with the strength and the peace that passes all understanding.

Join me in searching your innermost hearts and finding the solid ground within you, the ultimate foundation, from which to launch the final assault on evil. Friends, evil is not what you might expect it to be.

Evil doesn't come with an ugly face or dramatic scary music.

Evil comes as complacency, banality, and uncaring. It comes with the thought that "it doesn't affect me" or even more insidiously, "it doesn't affect me --- much." and it comes with your constant delaying as you wait for someone else to do what has to be done.

The funds from CAFR revenues alone would pay for all government services on a perpetual basis and you would never have to pay taxes again.

Let me repeat that--- the funding available from CAFR revenues alone, would pay for all government services on a perpetual basis and you would never have to pay taxes again.

And never have to put up with the racketeers from the IRS threatening you, either. So as we gather together and look at the mess that the politicians and military and Big Business interests have made of everything, take heart. Be strong. Be determined. Whatever your differences are, let them be gone.
