

Modus Operandi of the Criminals

By Anna Von Reitz

Just change the meaning of the words. Or the labels. Or use slightly different words --- and attach new meanings to them.

This is how the criminals create codes --- including Federal codes, so that they can speak a different language in broad daylight, without other Americans knowing what is being said.

You will remember that they changed the meaning of "person" to mean "corporation" during the Civil War dust up, and also changed the meaning of "state" and such common phrases as, "Do you understand?"

And they always do this for specific reasons: (1) to avoid criminal charges; (2) to defraud others; (3) to obscure what they have done; (4) to promote theft; and (5) to legalize illegal acts--- especially after the fact.

No surprise that they are "at it" again, only this time, it's changing the definitions of "pandemic" and "vaccine" and "herd immunity" among other key words needed to discuss the current boondoggle.

They are rushing to change the definitions so that they can't be held accountable for promoting fraud. Again. Where does this end?

Who is going to stand up and take control of this miasma of miserable criminality? Read on: Facebook friends will need to go to my website, www.annavonreitz.com to see this content, because of the censorship issues.
