

International Public Notice: Motives of Genocide

By Anna Von Reitz

There is no excuse, no lawful basis, no legal basis for what the Biden Administration is doing here in this country or abroad.

Let us make this abundantly clear: Joe Biden is the "President" of the "White House Office, Inc." and nothing else. He is the President of what remains of the Dutch East India Company, nothing else.

He is not the President of The United States. He is not the President of The United States of America.

He is a con artist, a phony, a fall guy, an actor. Literally. And the election process that elected him was phony, too, quite apart from any wrong-doing or voting machine hacking or mail-in ballot fraud. It was already a three-dollar bill.

No, the elections in this country have been tainted with fraud since the 1850's.

This is when the United States of America, Incorporated, the British Territorial Subcontractor, started holding "public private" elections, and poured tons of money into political parties and campaigns and talking up the importance of having the ability to "vote".

Little did the victims realize that the "enfranchisement" that these British Snake Oil Salesmen were selling was an undisclosed "opportunity" to give up their identity as free men and women and as Americans, for the privilege of adopting the second-class political status of a U.S. Citizen (human) voting in the private corporate elections of a bankrupt British Corporation, so that they could inherit its debts.

That wasn't ever disclosed to the American Public. Guess you can all see why.

That's how Lincoln got elected. And that is the Office he got elected to. The British Territorial corporation dba the United States of America, Inc. was on the verge of bankruptcy and did go bankrupt in 1863.

So, how did Lincoln get into the White House?

The White House belongs to the colluding Roman Catholic Municipal Government.

They let Lincoln occupy the White House, which in the minds of the gullible American Public, meant that Lincoln must be the right and only President.

And now, let us observe that it was the Roman Catholics with the emphasis on "Roman" who were seeking a new life in America, a place where religious tolerance would finally allow the Roman Pontiff room to exercise his priesthood.

The White House-- built in 1792 and the oldest government-related structure in the Federal Capitol, is named after Jesuit Father Andrew White, SJ, who reportedly said the first Mass in Maryland, which was, obviously, a Catholic Colony named after the Virgin Mary, or, not so obviously, after Mary Magdalene.

Now, it may not appear to be connected, but only seven years later, the Dutch East India Company (1602-1799) was finally taken over for good by the British East India Company.

Understand that the Union Dutch East India Company was chartered by the Government of the Netherlands in 1602, and was the first Transnational joint-stock company in the world.

Understand that the Union Dutch East India Company was one of the key players in the giant Insurance Fraud known as the Bottomry Bonds Scandal that accompanied Queen Anne to the British Throne -- and it was under the charter of Queen Anne's Brother-in-Law, William of Orange; this situation forced an uneasy collusion between the Union Dutch East India Company and the British East India Company that endured until a fourth lovers' quarrel (British Navy acting as privateers against the Dutch Commercial Fleet) resulted in the formal dissolution of the Dutch East India Company in 1799.

This was little more than a merger ending a collusive monopoly, to keep the peace and the guilders and the marks and the kroners supporting the British Pound Sterling.

And who was the British King during all this? None other than our former liege-lord, George III.

We have wandered around the block a bit, but the point is to demonstrate that collusive commercial monopolies engaged in shipping and colonization, supported by several Continental Monarchies and the British Monarchy, too, underlie the economies of modern Europe.

And the so-called Kings of Britain were already pre-sold out to the Pope.

Britain, the Company, took over the shipping and colonization and mercenary forces portion of the operation in 1799, leaving the Dutch to specialize in banking, overland trading, warehousing, and business capitalization. They were still working hand-in-hand and for the same people.

Now, we come to America and the American version of this same arrangement. Instead of the Dutch East India Company, we had the United States Trading Company. Instead of the British East India Company, we had the United States of America Trading Company.

And although these were all transnational joint-stock companies chartered by European Monarchies, they were all ultimately administered by the British King, and at the end of the day, owned by the Roman Catholic Pope.

We already went over how Henry the Eighth double-crossed the Anglican Church, and now, we shall hear how Charles the Second, a staunch Roman Catholic, ordered both of his daughters (and heirs) to be brought up as Protestants.

The British Kings make 40% of the lifetime estimated estate value of Protestants and nothing off Roman Catholics. So, of course, they were at pains to encourage Protestantism throughout their realm(s), even though they were working for the Pope the whole time and owed their crowns to him.

Then, and to this day, they make the bulk of their money selling the estates and labor assets of "lost" Protestants --- and of course, by controlling trade routes, war, privateering, colonies, and courts.

These are all British franchises, and they get a cut off all of it, though the Pope continued to receive his Lion's share.

They haven't been able to get a good war going for a long time -- or, at least a long time for them.

Between 1776 and 2024 this country, the cheapest and best source of mercenaries for the British, has been at peace for exactly 22 years out of 248. Think about it. Think hard.

The discovery of the betrayal of the British Anglican Church and all associated Protestant faiths is having an effect on the money train between Rome and London, so they have fallen back on their second most reliable income stream: war.

They are now desperate to start a war and to make money any way they can. They don't care if it's a fake civil war in America or a genocide in Gaza or a proxy war in Ukraine.

The rest of the world is slowly choking them off.

To make matters worse, the Americans are waking up, including the American military.

To be blunt, the Transnational Transexual worshipers of Baal, Mammon and Baphomet, had hoped to be out of here and safely away in "peaceful China" selling their wares by now.

They love war because they make money--- lots and lots of money --- off war, but they always plan to be somewhere safe themselves.

While the Brits are trying to set America ablaze and trying to provoke the Arab states throughout the Middle East, they are being forced to rely on American Manpower instead of Chinese.

Quite obviously, the Americans are on to them now and even if they survive in the Middle East, there is no place to come home to. Not even Britian. That, above all else, is why they have been trying to clear a path to a new era of Colonialism in Africa.

They've already lost China as their landing place.

Now they've lost Ukraine.

Russia sweet-talked and assisted all the targeted countries in Africa --- having been attacked by the Euro-scum and not for the first time, they are now all allied with Russia.

Read that -- most of Africa is now allied with Russia.

Russia is already allied with Iran, and if possible, will be allied with Turkey soon -- a Trifecta melding Russian muscle and production capability with Iranian technical and scientific excellence and local knowledge, all meshing with the ferocious and well-equipped million-man Turkish Army.

This note to the U.S. Military --- color your rumps gone, boys, if you are fools enough to be dragged into this one, and stop guarding your own home.

President Erdogan of Turkey is suddenly the Belle of the Ball, with Vladimir Putin putting in his visit just in time for the Eastern Orthodox Church money and the F-15 Fighter bribe to wear off.

Bear in mind, that if a Great-Grandma in Big Lake, Alaska, can see this at a glance, so can a lot of other people worldwide.

No doubt, Erdogan and his Ministers remember what the Brits did to the Ottoman Empire, even if nobody in America ever read the history. And that has to be a really good motive for revenge---especially with the perceived value of U.S. Treasuries sinking into the Mariana Trench and the long-term bond market following after.

It does no good to kill Biden, Pelosi, nor the whole crowd of Leftist tools. The anxious bankers backing the Brits and Israel (because if they don't, their own dirty laundry comes out) will have bought new candidates by morning and made it look like this was an attack on America instead of an attack on "the US".

No, no, no, no. It does no good to take out the puppets and addicts and perverts. It's the puppetmasters who have to go.

Nor does it pay us to talk good, common sense -- like Colonel MacGregor suggests -- tell Israel we don't support genocide, and if this continues in Gaza, we're pulling out.

That is, in fact, the only solution for us and them.

Continuing this insanity of attacking Iran means that Israel will be obliterated from the map.

Even if they somehow coerced or paid every able-bodied man in America to go over to the Middle East and be slaughtered for the White House Office, Inc. and a purloined flag, it would still mean the obliteration of Israel.

As Colonel MacGregor observes in the film clip below, the only chance that Israel has, is to quit the genocide in Gaza and do it now.

But Netanyahu, like King Henry the Eighth, has cut his deal. Obviously. That's why he is still alive. He will willingly betray Israel to its final end, while pretending to lead it to victory and riches.

Just as Henry VIII acted as Head of the Anglican Church, while selling all his Protestant Subjects into slavery. Netanyahu is working for the Pope.

The reason that Israelis will be misled and the reason that Netanyahu will betray them is to get rid of the Dome of the Rock and all the evidence that underlies Jerusalem, all the history, all the evidence.

The Dracos think its time to fold the tent and collapse all the world religions that were headquartered in Jerusalem.

Even though they participated in creating all these religions, and have used them as tools to divide and conquer, what they want now is to destroy the evidence. Clean the slate and start over.

Yes, we are chalk under a giant blackboard eraser to them, but then, the feeling is mutual.

What we need is a short, sweet multinational declaration concerning the sins of the British Empire against mankind, telling the Brits to stop being puppets of Rome and telling Rome to knock it off -- or else.

Consider it said, as of 1776. It's called The Unanimous Declaration of Independence.

Those interested in saving their own lives should read it and confirm that all the evils that George III visited on the Colonists then have been visited on us again.

We are not the only ones who have noticed the way that Britain is always at the bottom of the dogpile. And we aren't the only ones who have tracked them back to their nest in Rome.

Pinpoint attacks on specific targets would disable the entire Maritime Commercial Banking System and put an end to the puppeteers, the phony Stock Exchange, and the whole bailiwick.

They know that. We know that.

They want us to take out Fleet Street and bomb Telaviv where the "New York Stock Exchange" resides. They want the BEAST-System computer in Texas destroyed. They want us to destroy the evidence of their crimes.

We all need to wake up from this bad dream and treat it for what it is: crime.

It's not about Israel. It's about money and control.

It's not about "America". It's about almost-300 year-old transnational commercial corporations that have been using us all, not just Americans, for sock puppets.

It's not about innocent civilians in Gaza. It's about oil that Israel needs but doesn't want to pay for, sitting right under the Gaza Strip.

Israel wants the oil wealth and energy source for its own growth and development. So they follow the Pied Piper and call their neighbors "animals" and murder them for their own selfish benefit.

The "American" oil companies, that aren't really American at all, want to drain every last drop out of the Middle East before opening up the vast American resources.

Of course, they don't want to pay us for that, either. Thus both Gaza and the Americans become targets.

You don't think that Joe Biden is an Oil Company Flunkie? Think again.

Just look at what Biden and his Administration have done to shut down domestic oil production using Theodore Roosevelt's same old cynical policy and cover story of "conservation" that benefits his cronies and nobody else?

No, this about oil, too. Lots of it.

So, we think that on the small scale, it's apparent what needs to be done. The CEO's of certain corporations need to be arrested. And if that is not enough, entire Boards of Directors.

For crimes against humanity.

"Mistakes Were Not Made" -- notice the bizarre floor show of nurses with needles and patients jumping on hospital beds that were showcased at the London Olympics. No mistake.

Before this ends, the role of the French and Swiss Governments will become apparent, too.

This is not a show, with a drama written in blood. It's a horse opera with Russian cowboys.

Remember: Russia, Iran, and Turkey. Doesn't really matter what the rest of the region does. Russia has already taken Ukraine and half of Africa.
