

Nasty Little Men with Nasty Little Minds

By Anna Von Reitz

There is a scene in one of my favorite movies, "Secondhand Lions" in which the hero tells his Grandnephew a profound truth. You need to believe in things because they are worth believing in.

Eric Dingus was a Dingus --- means "penis" in Irish --- and that is another obvious, arrogant, Territorial Raj "nom de guerre" --- a name adopted for warfare against the Fearsome Enemy: a mousy Great-Greatgrandmother from Big Lake, Alaska. His mission was to screw us over, and he very nearly did. But in the end, he didn't succeed, and I pray daily that neither he nor anyone of his ilk ever will.

I have known many "Undeclared Foreign Agents" in the course of my life, and seen a great many such nom de guerres. They have gotten really sloppy and arrogant over the years and often choose names that announce what they are doing, by way of "serving notice" of their intent and activities.

Here's another example---

Christina Cowherd --- who came into the California Assembly and quickly got herself into the office of Treasurer. "Cowherd" is another adopted nom de guerre, referring to us as "cows" that need to be "herded". Thanks, but no thanks. She left with the Secessionists.

"Tarvin" is another such name, meaning a follower of the original Ancient Romans who founded Rome in 753 BC. They are part of the whole Thirteen Family Cabal. Just like Russell-Jay: Gould, too. Look up who his relatives are, if you like.

And what are they all preaching and teaching? Falsehoods meant to lead you astray and get you into trouble, or seduce you with "candy" of various kinds that will obligate you to them and their corporations instead of having brains and guts enough to run your own government.

Which is what I am preaching and teaching and helping you to do. Run your own business. Take charge of your own lives. Be worthy of your inheritance. For the record, I am proud of my family, all of them, and have good reason to know the good, strong, generous, humble, and kind people they are. I love and honor my long-suffering innocent husband and my beloved Sister, Em, who, it is true, is "just" a housewife in Minnesota. Did we ever say otherwise? But my family is not the issue, is it?

America is the issue. Your standing as an American is the issue. What you are owed from these Vermin is the issue. The security of your home and your family and your land is the issue.

And never forget it. Never let your eyes stray from the prize.

Indeed, all this "personal attack" nonsense is just a sideshow, someone trying to distract and raise doubts about things that don't matter, as a means to keep you in line, sucking up their BS and towing their line. And paying them for the privilege of being defrauded.

Freedom is worth believing in. How many of you feel free as you lay awake in your beds worrying about letters and visits from the IRS and FBI?

Love is worth believing in. How many of you feel loved, as these Vermin have reduced the very concept of love and marriage down to a laundry list of "gives and gets"? Marriage to them is a commercial deal made by the State-of-State and two corporations forming a Joint Venture.

Our country and its people are worth believing in. Despite all the snide, nasty, gossipy, and yes, stupid, folk, the Territorial Imposters and their criminal friends, the vast bulk of the people in this country are like my family --- good honest Joes who work and contribute and want nothing but peace.

The truth is that Americans are not crooks and not war-mongers. It's our British Raj Employees who stepped into that role back in the 1860's and who have promoted it ever since.

Knowledge, facts, and truth are the issues, and those I have provided in great abundance, exposed and left for all of you to see and examine for yourselves. And as the days go by, researchers from all points of the globe are reporting in and reiterating the same information as it applies to their countries, too.

So, you no longer have to worry about whether or not you can believe me. You've got hundreds if not thousands of people all over this planet exposing the same rot and the same plots that were used to enslave them, using the same "system".

My old friend, The Informer, told me something early on in my career as an Unwilling Lawyer.

"You can never make anyone believe anything. You can show them the facts. You can show them the logic. But after that, it's up to them. So I never waste time on those with closed minds or those who have axes to grind."

And neither do I.

See this article and over 3400 others on Anna's website here: www.annavonreitz.com

To support this work look for the Donate button on this website.