

International Public Notice: Natural Law

By Anna Von Reitz

What happens when you kick over a beehive?

Tons of worker bees scramble and sting the threat -- whatever the threat is -- causing the attacker to retreat, or in some cases, kill the attacker.

This is the same thing that happens when we attack people's homes.

Sooner or later, the worker bees come and answer the attack.

This is why jihadists are attacking Bethlehem. This is why they are attacking Christians in Syria.

They and their culture and their homes and their people have been mercilessly attacked by Jews, and at least in terms of governments, the purportedly Christian governments of the west are helping the Jews commit genocide in three different directions at once.

The British are flying reconnaissance and spy missions for them; British diplomats are burning the midnight oil for them; the Bank of England is paying off all and any debts for them in secret and extending vast amounts of ill-gotten Rothschild credit to them.

The Americans are sitting on their hands, drooling like big, stupid dogs, and selling Israel "mo'better" bombs, and tons upon tons of all the misnamed "defense armaments".

Nobody here believes the standard narrative about poor beleaguered Israel being forced to defend itself.

What we see is yet another British MI6 False Flag set up, Israel acting as the British Bully Boy, lashing out in a lot of pre-emptive strikes against its Arab neighbors, while the House of Saud and Kingdom of Jordan and the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt smell the whiffs of a promised Oil Boom (unleashed in an attempt to stave off the advent of free energy) and curiously, don't lift a finger to defend the once vibrant Muslim-dominated but secular governments of Lebanon and Syria.

Christians could live in these countries and have homes and businesses like anyone else, but thanks to the ham-fisted British policies foisted off on Syria by the US Sock Puppets of Westminster, there was never a way for Syria to recover and have a decent life

Even though we now know that these things masquerading as our governments aren't actually our governments--- they are commercial corporations in the business of providing government services, instead ---- other people still imagine that Donald Trump is the President of our National Government, instead of the "President" of British Territorial Corporation and a "nation" of British Subjects who are our employees.

These business interests have neither the powers nor the integrity nor the purpose of actual governments, but they act "as if" they were governments and they "assume" the powers of governments under color of law, and they "appear" to speak for us ---- even though they don't.

So the jihadists are striking back because they have been stopgobbered by Israel for no apparent reason other than blind irrational ethnic and religious hatred, washed down with lots of greed and lust for unjust commercial enrichment from oil and seaways and artifacts that, oops, through no fault of their own, belong to Arabs.

What happens when you plant corn?

You get corn plants, and eventually ears of corn to eat.

What happens when you plant carrots?

You get carrot plants, and eventually carrots to eat.

All these things are so commonplace, so observable. Why should we even have to discuss The Law which applies to all of Nature?

What do you get when you plant hate and fear?

Hey, pay attention! --- You get a crop of hate and fear.

Which then self-seeds and creates what? More hate and fear.

Britain and France sowed the Nazis at the fake Treaty of Versailles and the Nazis sowed the Holocaust and the Holocaust empowered the Zionists who are Jewish Nazis. So they work on the principle that one good holocaust deserves another.

What they are doing right now will solidify Arab hatred of the Jews and regional violence for years and years to come. And that is precisely what the meddling bloated British pinheads want: create the mess and let the Arabs and the Jews kill each other and never give the region any rest, until every drop of oil is drained out of it.

Then, suddenly, when Big Oil goes the way of Whale Oil, peace will reign. Free energy will put an end to all the motives and games.

What fools we are, to let this "narrative" play out.

The Bible dictates that "before the end" Damascus in Syria must be laid to waste and left uninhabited. So the Do-It-Yourself cynics who hope to profit themselves and come to power by "fulfilling" Bible prophecy, are intent on razing Damascus. The whole once-beautiful city will now be bombed into oblivion. Those who cannot or will not flee, will be genocided for poor, little Israel.

The House of Saud will do nothing, because they are being blackmailed. Their secret is even more explosive these days than being counted among the endless supply of murdering pedophiles. They are Jewish in origin. Relatives of the Sassoons and Kahlounis.

The Kingdom of Jordan is similarly compromised by western influence and is too small to think about doing anything but save its own hide.

Egypt? After some good intentions and saber-rattling over the genocide in Gaza, Egypt has retreated, spooked by the sudden entry of the Turkish Army into Syria and the lure of a fat cut of the so-called "New Oil Economy".

So what finally moved Erdogan off his thin dime? Was it love or money? Money. And where did the money come from to launch the Turkish Army into Syria. From Constantinople, of course, from the Eastern Orthodox side of the Catholic (Universal) Church. And where did they get such wealth? From Pope Francis, of course.

As his Creditors warily approach, Francis has turned his pockets inside out. No money left at the Vatican. What gold wasn't sent to The United States under the watchful eye of the British Territorial U.S. Military, was collected up and then moved to Constantinople, where it has been used to launch a Muslim on Muslim Crusade.

While we hear about all the unbelievable actions of the Israeli Defense Forces, nobody talks about the million-man Turkish Army suddenly deployed as a mercenary force in Syria in support of the Israelis.

If you had a million Turks going in front of you and cleaning up behind you, you'd be able to do some pretty incredible things, too.

Reminds us of all the unbelievable exploits and success stories surrounding British WWII General Montgomery, who always managed to show up first at the Victory Party and get the most photo opportunities, even if the rest of us, the Russians included, had to wait for three weeks for "Monty" to show up.

Now that we know that the Brits, the Templars, and the Roman Church are at the bottom of the dog pile, such well-paid supporting actors as the Turks are no longer confusing.

Once they have utterly destroyed Damascus for no real reason, other than their plan to "fulfill" Biblical prophecy and profit themselves from the narrative ---- they'll wheel and head for Mt. Herman and Balbek --and come back through the Plains of Armageddon. The only thing spoiling their little historical tableau is the recalcitrance of the Russians and Chinese to play their parts as Gog and Magog.

Maybe they can get Zelensky to play both parts for them.
