

Nine Ranks of Angels

By Anna Von Reitz

There are nine ranks of angels, three Orders, and each rank has its duty and function.

The Highest Order which is closest to the Creator includes:

The Seraphim who maintain the throne (mercy seat) of God;
The Cherubim who serve the will of God; and---
The Thrones are the celestial recordkeepers.

The Middle Order is closer to our Earth and includes:

The Dominos are the means of movement through time and space.
The Virtues express the Will of God.
The Powers govern the Natural World and sustain it.

The Lower Order is closest to the Earth in time and space:

The Principalities serve the Powers functioning on Earth.
The Archangels guard the Earth.
The Guardians guard the people on Earth.

The Celestial Kingdom is unimaginably old in comparison to any Earth-bound government and so it is impossible for men to quickly or easily grasp the immutable and eternal nature of Creation and the Universal Laws and Powers that govern it all, but we must begin.

We have to make a start toward conceptualizing the Creation we live in and that we are part of. We have to become aware of our own powers and place in Eternity. We have to progress, and can no longer be held back by the evil and power-hungry ones among us.

As there is no school for this established on Earth and as there is no curriculum even beginning to explain all this, and as I have explained the first three General Jurisdictions that directly impact the lives of men, I must now forge onward and begin to teach you the Celestial Realms.

As you can see if you study the Nine Ranks of Angels, the Celestial Kingdom functions on relays and algorithms and feedback systems that are ordered so that each part interacts with the other parts through hierarchies, according to their functions.

Seraphs don't normally interact directly with Archangels--- not because they can't interact directly, but because their duties don't normally require such interaction.

Dominos interact on a regular basis with members of other Orders, both Lower and Higher Orders, because of their motive functions. Everyone needs transportation.

And yes, each and every one of you has a Guardian. They are with you from the moment your zygote forms until after your physical death. These Guardians are there to answer your questions and to assist and protect you, but they cannot interfere with your free will.

You can interact with your Guardian and ask for their help --- and should do so. Otherwise, you are missing out on one of the most immediate sources of help, information, and protection made available to you by the Celestial Kingdom.

Ask. Seek. Knock. Your Guardian is the one most likely to answer your questions, lead you to destinations, and unlock doors for you, or will expedite your introduction to those who can provide access and answers.

If you ask, your Guardian Angel will guide you safely through dark streets and hard times. If you are lost, your Guardian will bring you home. In the midst of disaster, your Guardian can and will save you.

This is how it is possible for it to be said that in spite of the great darkness and evil of these times, "not a hair on their heads shall be harmed".

This is how an entire steel and concrete bunker can collapse on the shoulders of one Marine and he can stand there, completely unharmed, holding up the whole building until his companions are safe--- and then walk out of the collapsed bunker himself, completely unharmed.

This is because that Marine learned to see what cannot be seen. And he learned to humble himself and ask for Divine help.

Nobody could explain the bunker collapse. Nobody seeing my car after the recent roll over could explain how I walked away unscathed.

But this is how an old great-grandma from a hodunk town in Alaska can give orders with authority in the highest realms of Heaven and have them obeyed.

You must see what can't be seen with eyes of clay, and humble yourself before the eternal and living Creator, our Father, forever blessed.

You must all grow into your inheritance.

I and that Marine and Gideon's Army will stand over you as long as we have to, but you can help by calling on your own Guardian Angels and discovering the Celestial Kingdom for yourselves.

It is not closed to you; it is, in fact, your true home.
