

International Public Notice: There is No "Battle" for the Constitutional Republic

By Anna Von Reitz

The quote "Constitutional Republic" unquote has been dead since 1861. The Constitutional Republic was a uniquely American governmental organization operating in international and global jurisdictions under the oversight of the original Confederation of States that was created in 1781.

Both the Constitutional Republic and the Confederation of States derived their powers by delegation from the Federation of States.

And the Federation of States derived its powers by delegations from the Union of States.

The only way that the American "Constitutional Republic" can ever be restored, is by the individual States coming together and reconstructing these governmental organizations and re delegating the appropriate powers to them.

It should be clear to an ape from the foregoing, that people who are registered as British Territorial U.S. Citizens can't do this work.

The only people on Earth who can rebuild and restore the "Constitutional Republic" are Americans and those Americans have to be adopting their birthright political status to do it.

It is as plain and simple as that.

British Territorial U.S. Citizens (and most Americans have been falsely registered as British Territorial and Roman Municipal citizens, both) can't do it, but that doesn't keep them from trying and claiming that they are rebuilding "the Constitutional Republic" --- when they aren't.

The Constitutional Republic was American.

Anything these British Citizens build is not American. It's British by definition.

And the end result would be that the British substitute their "Constitutional Republic" for ours, and leave everyone thinking that they are serving the original American Constitutional Republic, instead.

It's all another fraud, another Substitution Scheme.

Just like they exchanged their States of States for ours following the Civil War, they are trying to pull it off again and substitute a British Territorial "Republic" for our American Republic.

The people doing this dirty work are, unbeknownst to them, all registered as British Territorial U.S. Citizens and all they can build is a British Territorial version of "a" Constitutional Republic, which would be a very different animal from the actual Constitutional Republic they believe they are restoring.

So the only "battle" taking place is against criminals intent on defrauding the people of this country and using our own ignorance against us to do it.

Until and unless they correct their political status and the public records concerning their own individual political status, Donald Trump and his followers, and Tim Turner and his followers, and all these other groups purportedly "restoring the Constitutional Republic" are instead engaged in fraud.

And we are calling them out for it here and now.

They don't have the standing to restore any Constitutional Republic.

As British Territorial U.S. Citizens these people don't have a Constitutional Republic in their entire history to restore.

They are the ones always bragging and fretting about their precious "democracy" instead.

So if they won't come home and adopt their birthright status and stand up as actual Americans, we say --- let them have it.

Let them have the debts they built up for other people and the 80 million codes and statutes they created to rule every minute detail of their lives and business affairs.

That's their government. Not ours.

And we are not standing by and letting them get away with impersonating us and claiming that they are restoring "the Constitutional Republic" when that isn't something they can do.

This is an International Fraud Alert: Notice to Agents is Notice to Principals; Notice to Principals is Notice to Agents.
