

The Federal and State Constitutions, Vol. I United States- Alabama-District of Columbia - Online Library of Liberty

By Anna Von Reitz

Just found a great online resource for the State Jural Assemblies to use to research the founding documents of their respective States so long as they clearly recognize the context of this publication in 1906 and the nature of the incorporated entity doing business as "THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA" which is being referenced.

In 1906 the rats had just finished their preparations to declare the Scottish interloper doing business as "The United States of America, Inc." bankrupt the following year, so they had need to boot up a new replacement which they based in Puerto Rico following the Insular Tariff cases that got pushed through the United States Supreme court from 1900-1905. These were seminal cases that allowed them to run things offshore--- Hooven and Allison v. Evatt, Downes v. Bidwell, et alia. So this is the "new" version of the swindle: THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (INC.) chartered in Puerto Rico under Spanish Law of the Inquisition in 1906.

The use that these Vermin made of the information contained in this book was purely criminal and anti-American, but in the process they compiled information about both the actual founding documents and the organic laws of the individual States. You have to be careful because they refer to States of States, i.e., "Confederate States" as "States"--- instead of calling them what they are: commercial corporations, and this requires patient discernment. People have to think about what is really under discussion (creating a foreign corporation to form a Holding Company for foreign States of States) in this book, as a book, or they will be confused-- but as a resource for historical documents of the various States, it's handy for sure!
