

International Public Notice: Play by Play

By Anna Von Reitz

The Pope, out of the clear blue, decided that Jesus was owed everything and he was the steward for Jesus on Earth, so, therefore, he was owed everything.

Next, he divided the planet into East and West. And he separated the land from the sea and both of them from the air.

To expedite his plan, he hired men willing to support his claim to own everything. He made these men "kings" on the land, and "monarchs" on the sea, and "emperors" in the air jurisdiction, but fundamentally, these people were his servants and Overseers.

The kings, monarchs, and emperors worked as Overseers of the Pope's property.

The job of the Lords and Ladies and Barons and Viscounts and Earls and Dames and so on and on, was to support the king (or monarch) or emperor -- whichever hat he wore for the day, and help him Oversee the Pope's property.

So we have the Pope as the Ultimate Landowner, and we have Kings acting as his Overlords and Overseers and the retainers of the Kings who were "Nobility" of one sort or another, brought up the rear echelon of the Ruling Elite.

Below them were all the Slaves.

So it is a three layer power structure: landlord, overseer, and slaves, which is very ancient, and still causing trouble today.

The only thing that has changed in the past 8,000 years is that the names and faces of the landlords, overseers, and slaves have changed.

The Pope wasn't onto anything new.

The same exact despotic power structure with frills and bells and whistles --- but still fundamentally the same, has been in use since the days of Noah and before.

So, now, the proponents of this system -- the guys above the Pope -- are trying to boot up a new round of the same old enslavement racket.

The Pope is being replaced by the Native Tribal Chiefs (who still have to pay "tribute" to Rome) as the Landlords.

(They are calling themselves "the indigenous" as a means to set themselves apart from the rest of mankind and try to bunk up their claims to be the original owners and to "own all the land".)

Then they will appoint a government bureaucracy to act as Overseers for them and do all the dirty work, like beating and taxing the slaves, for a share of the profits.

And everyone else will be slaves.

It's the same three-part enslavement system as it ever was.

Unless we decide to object and fight, in which case the evil-doers will back both sides, wait until they are exhausted, then attack the winners with fresh mercenary forces.

Ta-dah! They get rid of the Natives and their pesky treaties and moaning about the past, and use them to inflict as much damage on the rest of us as possible, before the actual Perps come in and do the mop up.

They keep the slave system going like this, age to age the same, because they keep finding new shills to front for them and be their scapegoats.

Everyone wants to be King -- until they are one.

And they keep trading on things that never belonged to them. Like land. Or gold that belongs to defrauded American babies.

The land doesn't belong to Native Tribes exclusively and we have reiterated the historical and prehistoric DNA data which says that the only truly indigenous people on Earth are Africans still living in Africa.

Our point is not to tear anyone down or displace the validity of their rights and needs. Our point is that when we allow ourselves to be divided and labeled, humanity loses every time.

To put it in George Orwell's context, every time one pig becomes a "little more equal" justice goes out the window and all the evils of politics and titles of "nobility" and differences in general come into play as each group hunkers down, squats, and tries to get the football, even if the football is meaningless.

These labels like Black v. White, and Catholic v Muslim, Palestinian v. Jew, and Republican v. Democrat and yes, Indigenous v. Non-Indigenous, are used by the monsters that prey upon to divide us and conquer us and keep us all at war and confused and tearing away at each other, instead of putting an end to them and their enslavement racket and other criminal endeavors.

Right now, all the land titles in the British Territorial National Trust are being offered to the Native Tribes and they are being encouraged to think that they are going to be the only landowners in America.

Just forget about the 85% of what they call "non-indigenous" people who have lived here and died here, too, and have the same natural rights to own land in this country, too.

Forget about the fact that 90% of these "land titles" were supposedly created and placed in the British Territorial National Trust based on unlawfully converting and registering American babies as British Territorial U.S. Citizens and latching onto their Given Names, money, land and other assets using undisclosed and unconscionable citizenship contracts.

Forget that you are hurting and stealing from people who also suffered at the hands of the rats.

This is the way that we become what we hate and breed the same injustices we have suffered, imposing them on others, just as they were imposed on us.

When the Brits first landed in this country and wanted to buy land from the Natives, the Natives replied, "We don't own the land, the land owns us."

Of course, the Brits being the Brits, didn't get the point of this observation, and over the course of six generations of British oppression, the Natives have forgotten it, too.

It's time to remember.
