

The Truth About the Presidency

By Anna Von Reitz

The American States properly constituted, polled, and assembled, have agreed that Donald John Trump meets all Constitutional requirements to become The President of The United States of America, and that he does represent the chosen President of the American People despite the defects of the underlying legal presumptions giving rise to the election process.

It is therefore deemed a matter of Good Faith with respect to those Americans who, however improperly identified through no fault of their own, have elected him, to honor their expressed Will, and also to express the Will of those members of the American People still present on these shores who have by a majority of States also approved his election, to announce that Donald John Trump of New York is qualified and elected to serve in the High Office of the Power Holder and as The President of The United States of America, if and when he throws off the chains which have hitherto bound him and accepts and adopts his birthright political status as a New Yorker and as Holder in Due Course of all Persons associated with his Good Name.

Upon his action declaring himself a New Yorker and accepting his Name and all Persons/PERSONS related to him as Holder in Due Course, free of any other ownership or obligation to Cede and Company, the State of New York, the STATE OF NEW YORK, the United Nations or any other foreign city-state, he is right-wise empowered to enter into The Office of The President of The United States of America by the American People, and is charged to direct the operations of all foreign subcontractors on our shores.

He is specifically and in public instructed that upon entering the Power Holder Office, he is to meet with the Electors within 90 days, and is to maintain the security and well-being of these States and these People without exception, including the prevention of any mercenary conflicts on our shores, the arrest of persons engaged in acts of commercial piracy and fraud, and the persons of those engaged in predatory and criminal activities aimed at children, the aged, and the infirm.

As President of The United States of America, he is empowered and entrusted to act as the day to day Chief Executive Officer of the American States and People, to direct the course of business in their behalf according to The Prudent Man Standard. His powers include the authority to discipline and impose the constitutionally established limitations upon all Federal Officials, Subcontractors and Agents.

We regret the circumstance that he has had to face and the fraudulent misrepresentation of Americans which has led to commercial interests gaining an improper control of our government and the promulgation of false claims in commerce against our citizenry. We further regret the gross breach of trust and insupportable actions of certain members of the Municipal House of Representatives.

We look forward to Mr. Trump's acceptance of the actual Power Holder Office and stand ready to guide him through the process necessary to attain that Office and to function as the actual American President.

See this article and over 2100 others on Anna's website here: www.annavonreitz.com

To support this work look for the PayPal buttons on this website.