

Order

It is so ordered that all those now claiming to be American State Nationals standing upon the land jurisdiction of these United States must be honored and accorded their sovereign rights, their property free and clear of secondary claims or encumbrances, and their inheritance in full and plenty must be delivered unto them without duress or distinction according to the Will of these living claimants and their grandfathers.

The probate of their claims in equity and the probate of their private estates and the probate of their public estates amounting to fifty nation-states upon the land jurisdiction of these United States and all appurtenances thereto is now concluded and decided in their favor.

by Order of Judge James Clinton Belcher:

and so entered upon this Court of Record this 4th Day of July in the Anno Domini year of 2016, all rights reserved, sealed and delivered
