

International Notice and Proclamation Regarding Federal Employees

By Anna Von Reitz

It is against the Public Law of this country to presume the existence of any kind or form of war on American soil.

It is furthermore against the Public Law of this country to advance any form of commercial claim or claim of patent rights against people being mischaracterized as trans-humans, human Genetically Modified Organisms, corporations, public utilities, special purpose vehicles or any other self-serving and purposeful mischaracterization scheme in any way adversely impacting living men and women.

Attempts to redefine and re-label the nature of living men and women at any time during their life cycles for any purpose of self-interest at all is illegal, unlawful, and immoral. These activities are not tolerated by the American Government and any Federal Employee, Military or Civilian, who promotes, advocates, implements, or assists any such program will be fired, not eligible for rehire.

Any attempt by SERCO, INC. or other PERSONS to continue funding these employees will be deemed a breach of Fiduciary Trust and subject to a recoupment already established by jury trial in the amount of eight hundred times the amount advanced.

This prohibition and enforcement action applies equally to General Service Employees, corporate elected Officials, the Federal Civil Service, Federal Agencies, the Military, and the Uniformed and Licensed Officers, including Medical Doctors, Dentists, Nurses, Chiropractors, and Pharmacists.

This International Proclamation by the American Government is effective 8 A.M. Alaska Standard Time on this day, the sixteenth of September in the year of 2021.

So said, so signed, and so sealed by: James Clinton Belcher, Head of State, The United States of America

See this article and over 3300 others on Anna's website here: www.annavonreitz.com

To support this work look for the PayPal buttons on this website.